DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE!—

SHARING OUR TESTIMONY

Jesus heals the man with leprosy in the Gospel today. Even after instructing the man not to spread the report abroad, the man shares it freely. In our own lives, how difficult it is not to proclaim the wonderful things that God has done for us, both big and small! This is the essence of sharing our personal testimony: telling others how Jesus has transformed our lives and given us a fullness that we previously lacked. I invite you to consider the many opportunities you have to learn how to prepare and share your testimony, which is unique and not quite like that of anyone else. Look into our evangelization training for parishes, or contact us to visit your parish. We are happy to help!

A Note From Fr. Bob

Dear Friends,

Grace and peace to you!

This Wednesday is Ash Wednesday, we begin the great season of preparation to celebrate our salvation won for us by Christ's death and resurrection. Our parish Masses will be at 6:30 am, 8:00 am, and 7:00 pm. In case you missed it in last week's bulletin, the distribution of ashes will be very different this year. Instead of imposing ashes on the forehead, they will be sprinkled on the top of our heads in silence. This is a common practice in Europe and elsewhere. The words of sprinkling will be said once for the entire congregation before the sprinkling.

The primary reason why the Vatican and the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has called for this, is to minimize the necessity of physical contact between the minister and recipient and to remove the need for the minister to speak while in close proximity to the recipient. As a reminder, Ash Wednesday, all Fridays of Lent and Good Friday are days of abstinence (refraining from meat) for all Catholics from age 14 onwards. On Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, fasting and abstinence is also obligatory for those from the ages 18-59. Fasting means one full meal a day, with two smaller meals and nothing between meals (liquids are permitted). No Catholic is lightly excused from this obligation.

During Lent we will have several opportunities for personal and communal devotions and prayer. Each Monday evening will have Evening Prayer at 7:00 pm followed by the opportunity for receiving the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation. Father Jerry and I will be available at that time along with our regular Saturday time at 4:00 pm, or by calling us for an appointment. Stations of the Cross will be at 7:00 pm on Fridays except for Good Friday when it will be at 3:00 pm and they will be live-streamed. The Little Black book of meditations will again be available this weekend both in Church and the Parish Office.

My prayer for all is that this Lent will be an occasion to separate ourselves from the busyness and stress of daily life so that we might prepare ourselves once again to celebrate our salvation.

The Deal by Chuck Neff. The acclaimed new Catholic novel, The Deal by Chuck Neff, is available for free after all Masses this weekend. It is a scintillating story about marriage and a very quick read! It is available in the Gathering Area after all Masses. Check out the reviews on Amazon.com.

Let's pray for each other this week.

Peace,

Father Bob

If we accept the great principle that there are rights born of our inalienable human dignity, we can rise to the challenge of envisaging a new humanity. We can aspire to a world that provides land, housing and work for all”

Ash Wednesday

How healing will be your Lent?

Joel 2:12-18

Ps 51:3-6, 12-14, 17

2 Corinthians 5:20 -- 6:2

Matthew 6:1-6, 16-18

What victory do you need? What needs to be resurrected in your life?

For Easter to be more than just a day of colored eggs, fattening chocolates and big dinners, Lent needs to be more than just 40 days of obligatory sacrifices like meatless pizza on Fridays.

To experience the joy and power of resurrection, we have to take a journey through the experience of mourning and repentance. We have to experience the powerlessness of death: the death of our selfishness, the death of our worldliness, the death of behaviors that are not Christ-like.

In the first reading for Ash Wednesday, God beckons: "Return to me with your whole heart, with fasting, and weeping, and mourning." Fasting is worthwhile only if it improves our self-discipline so that we can resist sin and grow in holiness. We're hypocrites, like Jesus describes in today's Gospel passage, if fasting produces no inner changes.

What will your journey through Lent be like this year? What daily exercises will promote greater holiness? Here's a suggestion: Identify one fault – just one for now: one selfish behavior or one fear or one flaw or one unloving habit – and choose a daily activity or an abstinence for the duration of Lent that will help you overcome this behavior.

Tell God about this fault. He is beckoning: "Return to me with your whole heart, with fasting, and weeping, and mourning."

The readings from Joel and Psalm 51 remind us that God is merciful toward those who recognize their sinfulness and regret it so much that they're truly motivated to change. Dealing with our need to change can feel overwhelming and shameful, but if we keep our focus on God's mercy, we feel helped, healed, and finally resurrected.

By identifying and working on just one sinful tendency as our Lenten project, we can give it to Jesus, and by the end of Lent nail it to his cross and hear him offer it to God as he cries out, "Father forgive them....!" It will die with Jesus, and we'll be resurrected to a new life, a new level of holiness, a new closeness with Christ.

As you receive and wear your ashes, do it fully conscious of your need for forgiveness, with a commitment to overcome a significant sin by Easter.

Why do we keep the black smudges on our foreheads all day?

Not to win the admiration of others. It's a sign that we know we need to change! Otherwise, we should do as Jesus said: "When you fast, see to it that you ... wash your face" so that no one but God will know what you are doing.
