A Note From Fr. Bob

Dear Friends,

Grace and peace to you!

Happy Feast Day! Today we celebrate Pentecost Sunday, our parish feast day. Come, Holy Spirit, Come!

Last week following the announcements by the CDC, St. Louis County health department, and the Archdiocese, we relaxed the mask requirements at Mass so that just those who are unvaccinated are required to wear a mask while attending Mass. Thank you for your patience and cooperation. As noted in our announcement, we will continue to keep every other pew closed for the time being. We noticed last Sunday that the percentage of those who continue to wear a mask was between 10% and 30%. We will continue to live-stream our daily Masses and the Sunday Mass at 9:00 am. I anticipate that we will continue to live-stream the Sunday Mass even after the dispensation to attend Sunday Mass is lifted. This will allow those who are homebound, ill, or in a nursing home to have continued access to our parish Mass. Thanks to all our volunteers who have made the live-stream possible.

This Friday, May 28th, is the last day of school for our children, teachers, and staff. Saying that this has been an unusual year is an understatement. Thanks to our staff, teachers, parents, and students for your cooperation and diligence as we navigated the pandemic for the entire school year! Thanks especially to our principal, Mrs Koberlein, who daily was at the frontline ensuring the safety of all and following up with families and the health department when there was ever a question about the virus. It was a real challenge each time there was a positive case of the virus. Thanks to our school secretary, Mrs. Ayres, for being there every day helping Mrs. Koberlein and staying in communication with all to ensure the safety of our staff and students. Thanks to our Maintenance Supervisor, Mr. Honey, for all the many hours and days he spent disinfecting the building. Thanks to all our teachers for the heroic task of teaching in-person and remotely, at the same time. They took an impossible task but kept their mission at the forefront of all they had to do, teach the children. Thanks to our parents for helping us keep everyone safe. Thanks to our students for following all the protocols and being the good student family that Holy Spirit School has come to expect. Through all these efforts and cooperation this year we did not experience community spread of the virus even though we did see many instances of the virus with the associated quarantines. Thank you all. May you have a blessed and refreshing summer vacation!

Thanks to all who support our parish and school. Blessings to all!

Let's continue to pray for each other this week!

Peace,

Father Bob

ST. PATRICK CENTER CASSEROLE

We will be collecting casseroles for St. Patrick Center this Wed., May 26, in the white bin at the curb outside the entrance to church, from 6:30 - 9:00 AM. In case of inclement weather, the bin will be in the small vestibule of the old church (now the parish hall). You can enter that from the outside door. Pans and lids will be available for you to pick up. As always, thank you to our current volunteers for your generosity. If you are not currently making a casserole, but would like to join us, please call or email Mary Beth Schulte, 314-229-8067 or SpecRelEdu@aol.com.

STEPHEN MINISTRY A GREAT WAY YOU CAN HELP A HURTING FRIEND

Do you have a friend, neighbor, coworker, or relative who has suffered a loss or is going through a difficult time? Here's a great way you can help them—tell them about our Stephen Ministry! Stephen Ministers are members of Holy Spirit who have received special training to provide high-quality, confidential, one-to-one, Christian care to hurting people. Stephen Ministers meet weekly with their care receivers to listen, care, encourage, and provide emotional and spiritual support. The caring relationship lasts for as long as the person needs care. It's free, and it's a powerful way you can help a hurting friend.

To learn how to connect someone you know with a Stephen Minister, call the Stephen Ministry confidential Hotline today: (314) 739-0230 ext.130.

Our Stephen Ministers are there to care!

SOCIAL JUSTICE

"Even now we are journeying toward the Sabbath of eternity, the new Jerusalem, toward our common home in heaven.

...In the meantime, we come together to take charge of this home which has been entrusted to us. May our struggles and our concern for this planet never take away the joy of our hope. Praise be to our Creator! We believe in the all powerful Creator, and we Christians ask for inspiration to take up the commitment to creation set before us by the Gospel of Jesus."

The Holy Spirit is Christ's Spirit generously given to us so that we can be holy and to continue the ministry that Christ began.

On our own, we cannot be like Jesus, but if his Spirit is alive and active within us, we have Christ's holiness, his faith, his supernatural love and peace, confidence and endurance, and everything else that we see in Jesus.

You received the Holy Spirit during your baptism. The reality of this was confirmed and strengthened in the Sacrament of Confirmation.

Ever since the first out-pouring of the Spirit on Pentecost, God has been transforming the world by working through those who serve his Kingdom. He generously fills us with his Spirit so that we will succeed at whatever he asks us to do. But how well his holiness and power exudes from us is up to us.

A Prayer to the Holy Spirit:

Dear Jesus, stir up within me the fullness of Your Spirit.

Help me to live in Your holy power. Open my mind to understand Your truths and my heart to accept Your truths even before I gain right understanding. O Holy Spirit, help me to seek, more than anything, the kingdom of God. Help me to recognize what I am attached to that is not of You, and give me the determination and the strength to let go. I want only You.

O Holy Spirit, help me to face my sins and feel genuine sorrow for the damage that I have caused. Comfort me as I mourn my need for forgiveness, and give me Your spirit of rejoicing over this new growth. Then, help me to share this healing mercy with all those around me.

Jesus commanded, "Go into all the world and preach the good news." Use my gifts and talents to make a difference. I have my own expectations about what I should and should not do. I now surrender to You my ideas, my limitations, my preferences, and my goals. I want to be useful to You. I want to go where You lead me. Holy Spirit, send me forth gifted and empowered to spread the holy and victorious love of Jesus Christ.

Come, Holy Spirit; renew me. Amen!

Reflect & Discuss:

1. Does the Holy Spirit seem like a Person to you, as real as Jesus? Why or why not?
2. What effect does the "Prayer to the Holy Spirit" (above) have on you? What in it is most helpful to your spiritual growth?
3. How do you know when the Holy Spirit is being manifested in you?
4. Give an example from your life. How did this experience help you grow in holiness?
