Dear Friends,

Grace and peace to you!

All Things New Update

Thanks to everyone who has completed the Disciple Maker Index Survey of the All Things New planning initiative. As of this past Monday over 40,000 online surveys have been completed in the Archdiocese. In our parish 233 were completed online and over 200 paper copies have been picked up for completion. If all the paper copies are returned, then nearly 35 percent of those who attend Mass regularly will have completed the survey. That is a very good rate of response. Please remember that the survey closes on April 4th. All the paper copies will be sent to be processed and the link for the survey will become inactive.

As a reminder, you may take the survey online by going to our website and clicking on the link or going to the All Things New website, allthingsnew.archstl.org. You may also pick up a paper copy at the church entrances.

Remember, this survey is a self-assessment. A personal assessment of yourself in 3 areas: 1. Your participation in the faith; 2. Your beliefs; and 3. Your personal experience in the parish. If you wish to share comments, there is an opportunity at the All Things New website under the Ways to engage tab. Thanks for participating in the survey.

This weekend marks the mid-point of Lent and we celebrate this Sunday, the Fourth Sunday of Lent, as Laetare Sunday. Laetare is Latin for rejoice. The antiphon for Mass from Isaiah is “Rejoice, Jerusalem, and all who love her. Be joyful, all who were in mourning.” Now is the time to let our anticipation of the coming feast of Easter grow. Now is the time to rejoice because the celebration of salvation is coming. May we all enter this second half of Lent with hearts filled with humble expectation of what our Lord has done and is doing for us; shown us the way to the Father.

Let’s continue to pray for each other this week. And may we all pray especially for peace in Ukraine and for all those who have been affected by the war in their country.

Peace to all,

Father Bob

PRO-LIFE NEWS

The Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord: March 25th

The celebration of the Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord commemorates the visit of the angel Gabriel to the Virgin Mary to inform her that she was to be the mother of our Savior. After giving her consent to God's word, Mary conceives Jesus in her womb and becomes the mother of Christ by the power of the Holy Spirit. God becomes incarnate in the womb of a woman, and "the Word became flesh" (John 1:14).

In modern times, this feast day has taken on special meaning in Respect Life ministry. Scientific advances have allowed us to confirm that life begins at conception. This solemnity helps us to recognize the gift of new life from its very beginning. It calls us to reflect on how we are to care for, protect, and welcome new life, as the Blessed Mother did for the Christ child.

The Solemnity of the Annunciation also coincides with the anniversary of the papal encyclical Evangelium vitae (The Gospel of Life). This Church teaching on the value and inviolability of every human life remains an indispensable source of truth for all people.

Blessed Michaelina Josaphata Hordashevskia of Ukraine

Born in Lviv in 1869, Michaelina was known for her unusual piety in childhood. At 18, she felt herself called to be consecrated entirely to God, and made a private vow of chastity. Michaelina, taking the name Sister Josaphata, co-founded the Sister Servants of Mary Immaculate in 1892 and was the community's first superior at age 23.

Within 10 years, there were 128 sisters in Ukraine, and sisters soon went to Canada to serve Ukrainian immigrants living there. Under Sister Josaphata's leadership, it eventually became the largest community of women religious in the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church.

She was diagnosed with tuberculosis in her 40's and after a long and painful illness, died at 49 in April 1919.

She was beatified in 2001, during Pope St. John Paul II's pastoral visit to Ukraine.

SPEAKER SERIES

Please join us on Wed., March 30, 7pm in the Rigali Room for a presentation of the Church's Teaching on Ecology. Our guest speaker is Sister Cheryl Kemner, a member of the Franciscan Sisters of Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

The Franciscans have always believed in the sacredness of creation. In 2008, they committed further to that belief by choosing 'Care for Creation' as their community focus. Since 2015, when Pope Francis issued his encyclical Laudato Si', they have been engaged in promoting and living its values through education, advocacy and collaboration. The community's 2021 Chapter Direction statement asks them to tend to God's presence in the heart of the world, prayerfully, prophetically and courageously.

In answer to that call, Sr. Kemner and several other Sisters have given presentations on Laudato Si' and Fratelli Tutti to parishes, peace and justice teams, and conferences at Our Lady of the Snows and Cardinal Rigali Center.

For more information, contact Clare Duffy 314-291-2144, or Peggy Owen 314-738-0562.

Who is worthy to receive the love and unconditional forgiveness of God? During every Mass, we pray, "Lord, I am not worthy... but say the Word and my soul shall be healed." Jesus shows us in the Gospel reading that we are all worthy — not because of what we do, rather because of what Jesus did do: He died on the cross to take our sins into death so that we can rise up with him in the perpetual Easter experience of unity with God.

In the parable of the Prodigal Son, it's not what the son did that made his return home acceptable. It's not his repentance that made him worthy of receiving his father's love. It's what the father did. He loved his child. Unconditionally. He loved him even while he was far away, even while he was straying in a sinful lifestyle.

The dad's love was his gift to the son even while the son was rejecting it. The gift that the son gave to his dad upon his return home was an open heart to receive the love that had always been available.

During every Mass, we come to church as prodigal children. It doesn't matter that we think we've been good Christians all week long. In some way or other, we have turned our backs on God's full, unconditional, faithful love. This is why we always start Mass acknowledging that we have sinned. Let's take this opportunity very seriously!

Next, we listen to the Word that heals our broken relationships with God. Jesus is speaking to you through his Holy Spirit; listen in your heart. Jesus, the Word made flesh, is responding to your presence at Mass.

In the Offertory, we offer ourselves to the Father; it's our surrender. "I do not deserve to be called your child, so do with me as you will." What God wills is for us to be restored to a fully loving, give-and-take relationship with him and his family. And thus, in the grandest moment of the Liturgy, we receive the Eucharist as a gift of unity with God and with his whole family, the Church. (Those who cannot receive the Communion of the Host and Cup are graced with a Spiritual Communion.)

Reflect & Discuss:

1. In what ways do you feel like a prodigal child? Do you feel separated from God to any degree? What sins do you need to confess so that you can turn around and head back home? Your Father is waiting with open arms!
2. Describe a Prodigal Son type of experience. Are you waiting for a lost child or friend to return to the Church or to your love?
3. In what way have you been the child running away from God? What made you decide to return home? How did God receive you back? What convinced you that his love is unconditional and always available?
