ALL THINGS NEW
STEADFAST IN FAITH • FORWARD IN HOPE

From the very beginning of All Things New we have been asking the question, “Which communities does it make most sense to have come together in light of demographic shifts, evangelization and social outreach efforts, resources, and priest availability?”

You shared your feedback on what our parishes, ministries, and institutions need to look like to effectively share the faith in a way that is suitable and sustainable for our children, grandchildren, and generations to come.

Using the parish feedback summaries, parish workbooks and financial data of every parish in the Archdiocese, the All Things New Planning Committee has refined the first draft models to a second set of draft models, which offer one draft model per planning area.

- The second draft models for all 15 planning areas are now available for review on all-thingsnew.archstl.org.
- Because of your feedback, of the 42 first draft models initially presented to priests, deacons, religious, parish life coordinators, key archdiocesan advisory bodies, and the lay faithful for consideration, none were adopted in the second draft models.
- The models show the Archdiocese being reshaped from 178 individual parish pastorates into 88 pastorates in order to best serve the lay faithful. A pastorate is a community that is under the pastoral care of one pastor and pastoral team.
- Please provide any feedback you have about the second draft models to your pastor or key parish leaders by Wednesday, February 15.
- This will be the last set of draft models and the final portion of feedback gathered in order to enable Archbishop Rozanski to make a well-informed, discerned decision for the spiritual well-being of the Archdiocese, looking at the feedback of the people and the needs of the Archdiocese. This decision will be announced on May 28, 2023 by Archbishop Rozanski.

Prayer for St. Valentine's Day

Lord, on this St. Valentine's Day, we come before you with our prayers and rejoice in the wonder and power of your never ending love for us, and our love for you.

Help us to be slow to judge others, but always quick to listen.

Make us hesitant to criticize, but always eager to encourage, remembering your endless patience with us.

Help us to have hearts which are humble and which always look for the good in others. May we celebrate and appreciate all that we have, and all that we are, and be ready to share what we have with those around us.

Help us to be strong and a refuge for those around us . When the world outside is harsh and cold, may our hearts always be open, a place of acceptance and warmth.

May we always strive to help those who are sick, lost, lonely or in despair.

Help us to stand up for what is right and good. May we defend the defenseless, and help the helpless.

Show us all how we can make a real difference to the lives of others, however small or insignificant this may sometimes seem.

Help us to see each new day as an opportunity to give ourselves to your service.

Help our hearts to always beat with love for you and others.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Love One Another as I Have Loved You

In John 15:12, Jesus says, "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you."

Loving and caring for one another is not just the clergy's job—it's something Jesus calls us all to do!

Stephen Ministry is a ministry in which people with special gifts for caring and helping can put those gifts to use, bringing Jesus' love and care to those who most need it.

If you know someone who is going through a difficult time, call the Stephen Ministry confidential Hotline today: (314) 739-0230 ext.130.

Our Stephen Ministers are ready to provide focused, confidential, one-to-one Christian care—to help that person experience the healing power of Christ's love.

~ WE NEED YOU! ~ for LUKE 18

HIGH SCHOOL TEENS FOR TEAM: Our retreat is a great way to earn service hours while having fun with friends and giving back to the community. Our first team meetings begin on February 23. Meetings will be on Thursday evenings in the Resource Center from 6:30-8:30 p.m. High school students are needed to be on the team.

RETREATANTS: Look for permission forms to come home from school, PSR, Middle School Madness, and Confirmation sessions or email deisenbath@holyspiritstl.org for a form. This is a great opportunity to grow in faith and make new friends or deepen friendships on a fun retreat.

PARENTS: We must have one parent for every 10 retreatants. Last year we needed 5. If your child is going and you would like to help make our Luke 18 retreat possible, please contact Donna Eisenbath. Adults must PGC. If you are worried about giving your son or daughter space, you do not have to be in the room while the retreat is going on. There are beautiful outdoor spaces as well as a rec room on the property. Please consider helping us make Luke 18 a reality for our young people.

WE HAVE A GROUP TEXT MESSAGE for 8th grade/high school gatherings USING REMIND APP.

Contact Donna Eisenbath to be added to the group messages and reminders.

CONFIRMATION

- 7TH GRADE FAMILIES –

COMMUNITY, WE NEED YOU!

- PRAYER PARTNERS – The most important thing you can do for us is pray. Watch here for opportunities to pray for specific needs for youth ministry and our young people.
- FEBRUARY PRAYER INTENTION: Please pray for teens and their relationships, that they will have good examples of love (parental, friendship, romantic) in their lives, learn to love themselves and know good boundaries, and experience Jesus love for them. Please pray for our retreat team, that young people will hear and answer the call to leadership, and that we will grow in faith and friendship.

CONVERSATION STARTERS FOR TEENS AND PARENTS

- What do you think love is? What are some different kinds of love? Who do you know that are good examples of each kind?
- How do you know when love is real?
- Talk about something that someone did for you that you know was out of love.
- Who do you love? Who loves you?

6th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Sunday February 12

Sirach 15:15-20
Ps 119:1-2,4-5,17-18,
33-34(1b)
1 Corinthians 2:6-10
Matthew 5:17-37

The Jewish religious authorities of Jesus' day were often literalists in their interpretation of the Law of God. Jesus, however, gave a deeper meaning to the Law. He placed his focus on the goal of the Law: Love.

Monday February 13

Genesis 4:1-15, 25
Ps 50:1,8,16bc-17,20-21
Mark 8:11-13

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus explains that we fail to fulfill the Law when our so-called obedience isn't motivated by love.

Tuesday February 14

Sts. Cyril and Methodius
Genesis 6:5-8;7:1-5,10
Ps 29:1-2,3ac-4,3b,9c-10
Mark 8:14-21

Jesus completely fulfilled the true meaning of the Law. In doing so, he took upon himself our disobedience and died for us in the most generous gift of love.

Wednesday February 15

Genesis 8:6-13,20-22
Ps 116:12-15,18-19
Mark 8:22-26

As his followers, we also are to be generous with love. Obeying all the commandments – truly obeying them – requires loving God with our whole heart, all the time, and loving others as ourselves.

Thursday February 16

Genesis 9:1-13
Ps 102:16-21,29,22-23
Mark 8:27-33

Jesus explains how to transform literal interpretations of God's laws into the Law of Love. In each example, he shows that we are to choose the most loving approach to every problem, no matter how difficult.

Friday February 17

Genesis 11:1-9
Ps 33:10-15
Mark 8:34 – 9:1

His first topic is anger: Sinful anger is judgmental and we are judged by this sin. Jesus provides the remedy: Go and do whatever is necessary to be reconciled. This, he points out, is even

Saturday February 18

Hebrews 11:1-7
Ps 145:2-5,10-11
Mark 9:2-13

more important than worshiping God. How genuine can our worship be if anger has replaced love in our hearts, since God is love?

Another example is lust, which is a counterfeit of love because it treats others as objects. And divorce from a valid marriage is a failure to love as Christ loves, who taught that love makes sacrifices and endures hardships. Remarriage, he says, furthers the sin because it's unloving to the spouse of the original union.

Jesus extends this teaching to every area of life. Breaking an oath is unloving. Lying and never intending to keep the commitment is unloving. In fact, the entire Sermon on the Mount, of which this Gospel reading is a part, explains how to love.

Reflect & Discuss:

- † Were you ever treated unlovingly because of another person's legalism? How did that experience hide the true nature of Jesus?
- † What habits do you have that are unloving toward yourself? How do they affect others?
- † Recall a time when someone treated you unfairly but you responded with an act of love. How difficult was it to give that love? What were the results?
- † Name common ways that Christians fail to obey God. What did Jesus do to make up for those failures? For example, how do you suppose Jesus treats unborn babies who've been aborted or miscarried?
