A Note From Father Bob

Dear Friends,

Grace and peace to you on this, our parish feast day, the Feast of the Pentecost.

Happy Feast Day! In his first Letter to the Corinthians at the beginning of chapter 12, St. Paul writes,

“There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit;
there are different forms of service but the same Lord;
there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone.
To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.”

Then later in the same chapter,

“As a body is one though it has many parts,
and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons,
and we were all given to drink of one Spirit..”

I have seen many people respond to the gifts they have received from the Spirit. It is visible all throughout our parish. And are used for the benefit of others. As we celebrate our parish feast day, now is the time to consider the gifts we have each been given. How is God calling us to build up the Body of Christ, the Church, in our parish? Sit with God today and in the days to come. Listen to him. He is calling us each to a deeper understanding of our gifts and his love for us. May we all respond to him and “Strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts.”

Let’s continue to pray for each other this week. And, let’s pray for an end to violence in our world, in our nation, and in our cities and towns.

Blessings to all!

Peace,

Father Bob

We are world-changers and difference-makers. We are empowered women from different backgrounds forever connected by our city, our faith, and the sisterhood of an all-girl education. We are Cor Jesu Academy, Incarnate Word Academy, Nerinx Hall, Notre Dame High School, Rosati-Kain High School, St. Joseph's Academy, Ursuline Academy, and Villa Duchesne. We are united in our efforts to provide all-girl, Catholic educations to generations of St. Louisans for years to come.

Only gifts received during this three-day challenge will count toward the competition. We will announce the winner on June 17.

Matthew 5:33-37

In John 20:19-23, Jesus says "peace be with you" twice. First, he gives his disciples the gift of peace so that they can take their focus off of their worries to look at him and recognize him standing in their midst.

Then he says it again while giving them the vocation of continuing the mission that he had started. This time, "peace be with you" is to be the fruit of a life lived in the Holy Spirit while serving God for the sake of the world.

It's one thing to feel peaceful because we know that Jesus is with us. It's quite a challenge, though, to feel peaceful when telling others about Jesus, for we feel inadequate and overwhelmed, and we're afraid of being persecuted and rejected. That's why he gave us his Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit gives us whatever we need for doing the work that the Father asks of us, and thus we are not really inadequate nor does God fail to comfort us when people reject us.

One of the fruits of partnering with Jesus in the power of his Spirit is an inner peace that does not depend on what happens, nor on what others do or don't do to us, nor on how they respond to the Good News that we share with them. Peace is the result of being alive in the Spirit. Peace is the Spirit's activity within us.

At the end of this Gospel passage, Jesus gives the Apostles (the first Catholic priests) the authority to forgive sins as surrogates of his divine presence. He is instituting the Sacrament of Reconciliation, which provides to us Jesus himself in the form of the human priest.

The same forgiving power of the Spirit enables all of us to experience peace in a sinful, tumultuous world. Even when forgiving is most difficult, in the Spirit of Christ we can do it. We can forgive those who hurt us, even if they never repent. And this is what restores our peace.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What is causing you to feel unpeaceful?
2. Whom do you need to forgive in those situations? If you've forgiven everyone and you still lack peace, do you need to forgive yourself? Or God? Consider going to a spiritual director or counselor for help in finding all the peace that Jesus wants you to have.
3. Give an example of how peace is a fruit of life in the Holy Spirit.
4. What other fruits come from depending upon God and partnering with his Spirit?
