A Note From Father Bob

Dear Friends,

Grace and peace to you!

This weekend at the 9:00 am Mass we will commission our Women's ACTS Team. This Team of Women will be taking time over the next many weeks to prepare for the upcoming retreat. They pray to be open to the many gifts and talents needed to help others grow closer to our Lord in retreat. During the commissioning, we will ask our Lord to bestow on them the strength to live a life of faith and the gift of discipleship in spreading his word. We also pray that the Holy Spirit will fill their hearts and minds with love and wisdom to fulfill their mission. May we all pray for these women during this time of formation. May we also pray for those who are considering if this is the time to make a retreat. May they be open to God's call to a deeper relationship.

As a reminder to save the date, the Women's ACTS retreat begins on Thursday, September 29th and concludes with the 11:00 Mass here at Holy Spirit on Sunday, October 2nd.

Annual Missionary Co-op Appeal

On the weekend of July 23rd/24th we will welcome a missionary to our parish and have received the following note:

Dear Parishioners of Holy Spirit Parish

On the Weekend of July 23/24, 2022 - is a Mission Appeal Sunday in your parish. This year I invite you to support the missionary work of Prelature of Esquel (Patagonia) in the home country of our Pope Francis, Argentina. Without funds collected during Mission Appeal Prelature of Esquel cannot sustain its pastoral work e.g. evangelization activities, children and youth catechetical programs, lay ministry training and help for the poor.

Your Mission Cooperative Preacher will be Fr. Zbigniew Pienkos who helps to raise moneys that are much needed to build newly created Prelature of Esquel.

Your support during this time of struggle is greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your prayers and contributions. Thank you for your generous support to help the Prelature of Esquel in Argentina.

May God bless you and your loved ones!

*Most Rev. Joseph Slaby
Bishop of Prelature of Esquel*

Thank you for your support of these and the many missionaries who have come to our parish through the Annual Archdiocesan Missionary Co-op Appeal. You make a difference in their lives.

Let's pray for each other this week.

Peace,
Father Bob

FROM DEATH TO NEW LIFE

We express our deep sympathy and assurance of our prayers to the families of

- ♦ Luis Europa, father of Sandra Lasam
- ♦ Charles Dent, husband of Dottie

MAY THEIR SOULS REST IN THE PEACE OF CHRIST.

OUR MISSION:

We, the community of Holy Spirit Parish, centered in the Eucharist, and guided by the Holy Spirit, will use our shared wisdom to be a joyful, accepting and forgiving community. We encourage all to grow in the Catholic faith by teaching and proclaiming the Gospel, serving others and praising God.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

O God, who show the light of your truth
to those who go astray,
so that they may return to the right path, give all who for the faith they profess are accounted Christians
the grace to reject whatever is contrary to the name of Christ
and to strive after all that does it honor.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

Themes in the Gospel of St. Luke Presenter: Mark Etling, Ph.D.

Saturdays—July 16th & 23rd: 10 a.m.—12 Noon

Each of the four Gospels focuses on different aspects of Jesus' ministry and teaching. The Gospel of Luke is known as the Gospel of the Poor, the Gospel of Women and the Gospel of the Holy Spirit. Why did Luke choose to highlight the importance of poor people and women, when both were considered inferior and on the margins of society? Why is so much more importance attached to the Holy Spirit in Luke and the Acts of the Apostles than the other Gospels?

Join us as we discuss these important themes in the Gospel of Luke.

Cost: $30 for series; $10 per session

Matthew 12:14-21

The opposite of love is not hate. It's apathy: ignoring a need, not caring, and doing nothing when there is something we can do to relieve the suffering. In Luke 10:25-37, Jesus uses the Parable of the Good Samaritan to explain that if we love God with our whole heart, our whole being, our whole strength, and our whole mind, we naturally care about other people, even those who are strangers, even those whom we're "not supposed to" like, and even when it costs us something personally.

Many of the problems that exist in our world today are allowed to continue because too many of us Christians – we who through Christ have the power to change the world – do not care enough to sacrifice our time and personal agendas to get involved. Much of the suffering that's endured in our families and workplaces and parishes would be stopped or relieved if enough Christians loved God enough to care about others enough to risk the cost of intervening.

How much do you love God? The answer lies in how much you're willing to sacrifice for the sake of loving others, which is the definition of love that Jesus taught us with this parable and with his life.

None of us love God perfectly yet. Purgatory will be a time of painfully regretting our lack of love, while eagerly improving our love for others so we can enter into the fullness of God's love in heaven. Until then, we have daily opportunities, here and now, to purify our lives less painfully. Daily we're given tests to improve how well we love others.

So daily ask the Holy Spirit, your source of holiness, to help you become more like Christ. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you love all others as Christ loves them.

By doing this spiritual exercise consistently, you will receive a new joy and an enlivened passion in dealing with others. You will feel greater love for God and you will experience his love for you much more intimately.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. Whom do you pass by and ignore when you see suffering? Is there anyone you've recently walked away from because you didn't want to give up something (perhaps your time, pride, prejudice, feeling of inadequacy, resentment or unforgiveness)? Take it to the Sacrament of Confession to receive God's help in loving others more fully.
2. Name a "Good Samaritan" you know or have read about. What did this person give up to serve others? How do such people find the ability to love so well?
3. Describe a situation you've witnessed where apathy has contributed to someone's suffering. How could love make a difference?
