A Note From Father Bob

Dear Friends,

Grace and peace to you!

Annual Archdiocesan Mission Co-op Appeal

Next weekend we welcome Father Zbigniew Pienkos, a Polish Redemptorist Priest who will speak to us at all the Masses for the Annual Archdiocesan Missionary Co-op Appeal. During his talks he will share information about the missionary work that is being carried out in the newly formed Prelature of Esquel in the Patagonia Region of Southern Argentina. We will have a second collection at all Masses to benefit the missionary work of the Church. Thank you for your generous support.

Annual Catholic Appeal Update

The Annual Catholic Appeal for 2022 will soon come to a close in mid-August. It is not too late to make a pledge. You may go to aca.archstl.org to make a pledge. Our parish challenge goal is $120,000 and to date we have pledged $130,317! Thank you so much on behalf of all the many people who will be helped by your generosity.

St. Benedict and parishes

This past Monday we celebrated the feast of St. Benedict. He is widely known as the founder of modern monasticism. That is saying a lot since he died in 547, almost 1,500 years ago. Benedict was unique in that he designed his Rule of life for ordinary human beings whereas other attempts at monastic life stressed rigorous asceticism and self-denial. He stressed the role of community as a school for holiness. If we consider the monastic way of life and the formation of monasteries and their accompanying parishes throughout the centuries, we see that they are the foundation and model of dioceses and parishes that we have today. Like them, our parish communities and dioceses have the same goal, to grow in holiness. Benedict emphasized a balance between work and prayer. Keeping in mind that while we take time to work, we should also take time to pray. What was a good model 1,500 years ago, remains a good model for us today. I always sign off my column with the request, "Let's pray for each other this week." Really, it's a request that each of us help each other to grow in holiness. A question for all of us to ponder this week is, "How can I help my brother or sister in our parish community grow in holiness?" Pray!

Beginning today, I will be away on vacation for two weeks. Please pray for me as I will be praying for you and remembering you at daily Mass. Take care of Father Jerry. Maybe give him a call, bring him some cookies, or take him out to dinner. He's a great priest!

Again, let's pray for each other this week.

Peace,
Father Bob

In this Sunday's Gospel reading, Jesus speaks to us about our anxieties and worries. They distract us. They're harmful to us if we let them control our lives, because they take our eyes off of our Lord and focus us on what's going wrong and how it might get worse.

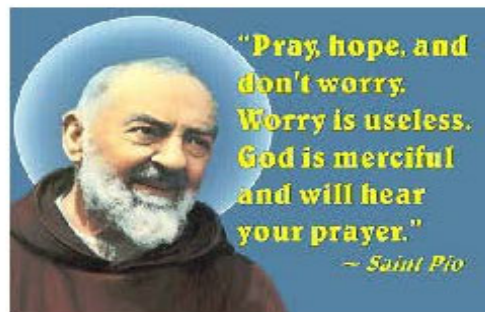

Mary chose the "better part"; she didn't let anything distract her from being a disciple learning avidly from Jesus. When we make the time to put aside the busyness of life to sit quietly and learn from Jesus, we discover reasons why our worries aren't really so worrisome.

Only as we sit quietly at the feet of Jesus do we find hope that overcomes despair, peace that conquers anxiety, and wisdom that gets us through trials. Even the littlest worry, such as Martha's concern that her kitchen chores wouldn't get done, is a sin when it takes our eyes off of Jesus. Nothing that distracts us from Jesus is ever good for us.

We cannot grow in holiness when we're not watching Jesus and learning from him how to be holy. We cannot love as he loves nor receive all the love he gives us unless we have a prayer life that includes quiet time alone with him, drinking up his lessons and his loving embrace. Prayers said while driving or listening to homilies isn't enough.

Anxieties and worries are varying degrees of fear. We're afraid that something bad is going to happen.

Even when there's a legitimate reason to worry, fear blocks our view of Jesus, because it turns us away from him.

We need to recognize fear as a warning flag that's telling us to slow down, quiet down, and sit down with Jesus for a good discussion on whatever it is that's bothering us. He's got the answers, the encouragement, and the affirmation that will bring us peace.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What has been worrying you lately? What are you anxious about? What are you fearing might happen? Write them on a list and take them to Jesus in a quiet prayer time.
2. What lessons is Jesus trying to teach you in those situations? Ask the Holy Spirit to help you learn from Jesus. Search the Bible for additional inspiration.
3. What are some of the ways we can slow down our lives and improve our prayer times?
4. Tell the story of an experience you had when quiet prayer relieved an anxiety or solved a problem.
