Thank You

Dear Parishioners of Holy Spirit Parish,

On behalf of Bishop Jose Slaby and the people of Prelature of Esquel in Argentina (Patagonia), I want to thank you for your prayers and generous support last weekend. Your donation to the Mission Appeal will help ensure that the Gospel is spread and reaches even to "the end of the earth".

Thank you for helping build from scratch Prelature of Esquel. Thanks to your support, the poor and underprivileged can experience the joy of the Gospel that brings true hope in their very challenging life. Be assured that you will be always remembered in our prayers. May God bless you all!

Fr. Zbigniew Pienkos

"Since they are members of the Church by virtue of their Baptism, all Christians share responsibility for missionary activity. 'Missionary cooperation' is the expression used to describe the sharing by communities and individual Christians in this right and duty.

Missionary cooperation is rooted and lived, above all, in personal union with Christ. Only if we are united to him as the branches to the vine (cf. Jn 15:5) can we produce good fruit."

Pope St. John Paul II, Redemptoris Missio, 77

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Draw near to your servants, O Lord, and answer their prayers with unceasing kindness, that, for those who glory in you as their Creator and guide, you may restore what you have created and keep safe what you have restored.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

THANK YOU SO MUCH!

Dear Parishioners and Friends,
Thank you so much for your generous and gracious kindness to me, especially these last two week. I so much appreciated the goodies, the fruit, the meals and just your overall support while Fr. Bob was away.
May God bless you generously for your love and care for the "old guy".

When we understand God's generosity, we realize how wealthy we truly are. Even if we have little money in the bank, our lives are rich in God - feeling protected and cared for by God, giving us an abundance of peace that gets us through trials and battles with wisdom and endurance.

God's generosity also leads to material goods. Every material blessing we have comes from God. He delivers it to us through the talents and skills he has given to us. Whatever we earn through our own efforts comes originally from God's efforts. God is the source of everything that's good in our lives.

However, there's more! Everything from God is meant to bless others, too. We are conduits of God's generosity.

Whatever we have that we refuse to share becomes the cause of sin. We succumb to selfishness, which is akin to greed. The problem with greed is that it hurts others by denying them what God wants to share with them.

What makes us vulnerable to this sin? Self-reliance. It comes from thinking that we can rely solely on ourselves and on our own resources instead of partnering with God in generosity. Even when we recognize that God has been generous with us, self-reliance says that we are responsible for preventing the poverty of giving it away to others.

When we protect our lives by storing up our goods, others suffer. In the Gospel reading this Sunday, Jesus addresses both greed and self-reliance, because they are completely contrary to the personality of God.

Generosity grows when we understand that God is the provider of everything good and that he will continue to provide for us even when we give away what he gives to us - especially when we give away what he gives to us. Think about what you have in abundance (be it money, or joy, or wisdom, or lessons learned from experience, or ____). Now look around. How might you be the answer to someone else's prayers?

Whatever we hope to have already belongs to God and is meant to be shared with others. This is the primary economic principle of the kingdom of God. The Body of Christ thrives only when there's a continual exchange of goods. We call this the communion of saints.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What is most difficult for you to share or give away?
2. Why do you cling to it? What are you afraid will happen if you let go of it?
3. Why do we feel safer relying on ourselves than on God?
