A Note from Father Bob

Dear Friends,

Grace and peace to you!

I don't know about you, but it seems that this summer is flying by. I can imagine for all the students and teachers, that it is just amazing that the beginning of school is just around the corner! Last week our teachers returned to begin preparing their classrooms for the new year. Several families have visited our school to make final decisions about enrolling their children. Let's pray for all those returning to their schools and those who are entering a new school for the first time. May they be open to all the many gifts God has in store for them this year.

Today, at our 9 am Mass, members of the Women's ACTS Team gather together for a mini retreat beginning with Mass and continue throughout the day with prayer and reflection. Please pray for them and all those who are considering joining the retreat at the end of September.

Next Sunday, our Spirit Brew Coffee Bar returns with Donut Sunday following all the morning Masses. In addition to Donut Sunday, we will have a mini-Festival of Ministries. You may recall that our Festival of Ministries highlights all the many ministries of our parish. This mini-Festival will highlight a smaller number of ministries so as to give everyone a chance to learn more about what is happening in our parish. This weekend we will highlight these ministries: The Carnival Committee, the ACTS ministry, Stephen Ministry, Holy Spirit School, and Holy Spirit Parish School of Religion (PSR). Members of each of these ministries will be available to answer any of your questions.

Thank you for your support of the Annual Catholic Appeal. Our parish challenge goal is $120,000 and, as a community, we have pledged $131,899. That's tremendous! Many people will be helped because of your generosity. This year's appeal will conclude on August 16th. If you wish to make a pledge, you may visit the website, archstl.org/aca. We are Brothers and Sisters, all and your support helps in many ways. Thank you!

Let's pray for each other this week.

Peace,

Father Bob

Ezekiel 18:1-10,13b 30-32
Ps 51:12-15,18-19
Matthew 19:13-15

We're told in Luke 12:32-48 that God is "pleased" to give us his kingdom, which includes eternal life in heaven as well as all the benefits of his love and goodness here on earth.

God does not withhold anything good from us. But do we avail ourselves of all he offers?

Jesus explains: If you value earthly treasures more than you treasure opportunities to share God's love and blessings with others, your hands are full of nothing that will last. If your "money bags" are filled with worldly goals that push God out, or selfish plans that push others out, or ungodly relationships that push holiness out from your life, there isn't much room for the wondrous and eternal gifts of God. "For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be."

Anything not of God is detrimental to us and, in the end, pointless, because it does not unite us to God and we cannot take it to heaven. We need to trade it in for the inexhaustible treasures that come from God.

Jesus isn't saying that we have to literally sell all of our worldly possessions in order to make room for divine treasures. What matters is our motive for having these things. Are they used for serving the kingdom of God or are they serving only earthly, temporary, selfish purposes?

Whatever enhances our union with God – and only this – is a treasure that we'll enjoy for all of eternity.

Jesus warns us not to waste time being lazy about purging our lives of earthly treasures. We don't know when the Master will come to take us to the heavenly banquet of eternal union with God. Will we be ready? Not if we're more interested in feeding our worldly desires.

This is why God, in his great mercy, provides Purgatory. Separation from earthly treasures (the purging) is painful when we prefer them over heavenly goods; Jesus describes this as the "beatings" that the Master's servants get. Why wait for that? Now is the time to prefer only the kingdom of God and build up our cache of gifts that no thief can reach nor moth destroy.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. If you knew you were going to die tomorrow, what would you do today to prepare?
2. What attitudes, what goals, and what plans do you have that don't assist the kingdom of God? What habits or addictions? Unloving behaviors? Unforgiveness and unresolved conflicts?
3. Describe an earthly attachment you used to have and explain how God helped you let go of it. What divine treasure did you gain?
