A Note from Father Bob

Dear Friends,

Grace and peace to you!

Today we begin the holy season of Advent, a time of preparation for the coming of our Lord not just at Christmas but in the belief that he will come again in glory. This is our opportunity for own individual preparation. Advent is a time of joy and it is also a time of penance. Joy because we look forward to the birth of Jesus. Penance because we take time to prepare ourselves to receive the great gift of his presence.

Some things we might do this year to help us prepare for the coming of Jesus could be: 1) Praying the Mass so that it becomes the center of our lives; 2) Immerse ourselves in repentance and make a good Confession during Advent; 3) Abide in His word and share His word (this is how Christmas Cards began.); 4) Practice certain disciplines and penance during Advent. Advent and Lent share the same liturgical color, purple, which is a sign of penance. Advent has also been called the “Little Lent”; 5) Practice good deeds.

This Advent may we all take time to prepare for the coming of Jesus. May we share our hope of His coming with all we meet. May we all have a blessed Advent.

On Monday, December 5th, children of our parish will receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation and Penance for the very first time at 7 pm. They are both excited and anxious to receive God’s healing love of forgiveness in the Sacrament. May we all pray for them that as they receive this sacrament for the first time that it will become a life-long habit of experiencing our Lord’s grace of forgiveness.

Happy Advent!

Let’s pray for each other this week.

Peace,
Father Bob

Advent Prayer

O God, you are great indeed.
Look upon us and reveal your glory, promised to Abraham and sent to us through David and his lineage.
Send us the warmth of your love, the light of your Word,
the vision of your wisdom, and the comfort of your people.
Open our hearts in welcome and grant us your salvation.
Fill our minds with watchful hope and let us see your kindness.
Give us new life, the promise and joy of salvation.
May the glory of your Son dwell in our land forever.

PEOPLE OF THE LIGHT

We are called to reflect the light of God's love through the ways in which we live our lives.
Imagine the impact if each of us took this call to heart, every day, at home, work, or school, in our parish, and in the world.

As we begin the season of Advent, Saint Paul admonishes us to throw off the works of darkness, and to awaken to the call of light and love.

THE LOOK OF LOVE

What does love look like?

It has feet to go to the poor and needy.

It has eyes to see misery and want.

It has ears to hear the sighs and sorrows of others.

Hope is the theme of the First Sunday of Advent. Isaiah describes a future in which all is well because (1) God is recognized as the highest authority and (2) obeying him is the people's highest priority.

This vision gave great hope to the oppressed Israelites. Today if we look at this as a description of heaven, it gives great hope to us, too. When we die, "terms" will be "imposed" upon us (i.e., purgatory) because we did not stay entirely on the paths of God, but we will be living in the light of the Lord after death and there will be no more wars to battle.

Knowing that this is our future, we can look at our present trials as preparations for heaven. The weapons that we use now to defeat and overcome the powers of darkness can be used as plowshares for enriching our soil (our earthly life), bringing us into new growth and producing a harvest in ministry. Sufferings that are turned into ministries to help others make hardships very valuable.

Although Isaiah was speaking of the coming of the world's Messiah through the Jews, these verses remind us that when we respect God's authority and make imitating Christ our highest priority, all is well for us. Our battles against evil aren't over yet, but Jesus has already won the victory for us. Our hope is not based on a wish for peace; our hope comes from the reality of what Jesus has already done and what he will do. So,

"let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord!" (Psalm 122).

The Gospel reading tells us that our hope is realized only if we stay awake and alert to the activities of Christ. What are you despairing about? Despair and worry are merely distractions that make us forget that Christ has already won the battle. If we stay alert to the presence of Christ, recognizing his authority and following his ways, we live in hope – not wishful thinking, but a hope that's based firmly on reality.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What are you despairing about?
2. What would it take for you to feel hopeful? In what way do you need Jesus to come to you now? What can you do to become more aware of his presence at your side?
3. How do you find hope in difficulties?
4. Describe a time when you nearly lost all hope. How did Jesus rescue you from this?
