A Note From Fr. Bob

Dear Friends,

Grace and peace to you!

We celebrate the Ascension of the Lord today, Thursday we celebrate our 8th Graders who will graduate from Holy Spirit School, and next Sunday we celebrate our parish Feast Day, Pentecost Sunday.

As we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord, we might recall the words of the angels to the disciples as he was lifted up to heaven. They said, "Why are you standing there looking at the sky? This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will return in the same way as you have seen him going into heaven." The deeper meaning is just don't stand there; he's coming back, you have work to do. Get on with it! Spread the Good News!

Next Sunday, Pentecost Sunday, we celebrate the outpouring of the Holy Spirit not just for the early disciples, but for all of us. In the Gospel, Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit."

This is a good time to remember our Mission Statement, "We, the community of Holy Spirit Parish, centered in the Eucharist, and guided by the Holy Spirit, will use our shared wisdom to be a joyful, accepting and forgiving community. We encourage all to grow in the Catholic faith by teaching and proclaiming the Gospel, serving others, and praising God." We are empowered to live out our faith and do the work of the Lord through the gift of the Holy Spirit. How will we do our Lord's work today?

While we recall this gift of the Holy Spirit each year, this Saturday of Pentecost will be observed with a real example of the outpouring of the Spirit in that we will celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation for two of our young people at the 5:00 pm Mass. Please pray for Paul and Odalys as they become full members of the faith. Congratulations and blessings, Paul and Odalys!

Congratulations to the Holy Spirit School Class of 2021! This Thursday we celebrate the graduation from our school with Mass for the seventeen members of the Class of 2021. They will attend the following high schools: Cor Jesu (2), DeSmet (2), Duchesne (4), Francis Howell (1), Incarnate Word Academy (1), Parkway Central (1), Pattonville (3), St. Dominic (2), SLUH (1). May God send down his blessings on our graduates as they continue their journey of education and begin high school. Thank you to their parents for entrusting their first years of education to Holy Spirit School. Thank you to our dedicated teachers for their care for our graduates during their formative years. Thank you to all of you for your ongoing support of our school program.

Let's pray for each other this week.

Peace,

Father Bob

STEPHEN MINISTRY

It's OKAY TO BE HUMAN . . .

We're brought up to be strong, self-sufficient, independent people. We tend to think that if we ask for help, it's a sign of weakness. So we try to keep our struggles hidden, stuffed deep inside. However, that's not God's plan. Galatians 6:2 says, "Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ." God wants us to care for others—and allow others to care for us in our time of need. If you're sad or struggling inside, don't suffer alone. Ask for help. Holy Spirit has a team of Stephen Ministers who are ready to listen, care, encourage, pray, & help you through a tough time. Men are matched with men, & women with women. (It's completely confidential too!) To find out more about Stephen Ministry for you or someone you know, call the Stephen Ministry confidential Hotline today: (314) 739-0230 ext.130.

CARE FOR THE ENVIRONMENT

"Whether believers or not, we are agreed today that the earth is essentially a shared inheritance, whose fruits are meant to benefit everyone." (no. 93)

Ps 11:4, 5, 7
John 21:20-25

Sometimes we find ourselves in the same posture as the disciples in Acts 1:1-11, looking up at the sky, staring at nothing, waiting for Jesus to come back and rescue this world from evil.

Our world needs the Second Coming of Christ—and now! What's the delay? Ahhh, but he's told us not to wait but to go forth and spread the Good News. He told us to take what he's given us and use it to continue the works of his ministry.

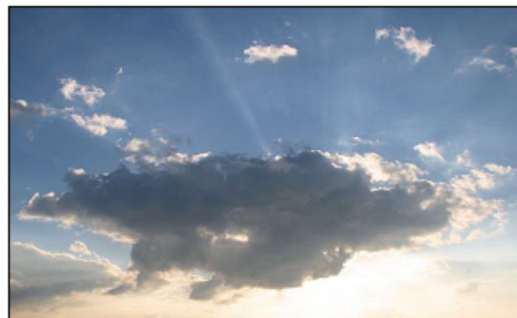

Why do we stare at the empty sky? Because we feel inadequate.

Parents know this feeling. After giving birth or adopting a child, we have the awesome task of raising this person into a faith-filled, emotionally healthy adult.

Graduates know this feeling. After completing college or a Lay Ministry training program or ordination or final vows, we stand on the threshold of working for the Lord and wonder: Will I be effective and successful? Will I like it? Or will I be sent where I'd rather not go?

Those who are grieving know this feeling. After a loved one is taken home to the Lord or a friend is lost in a failed relationship, our lives change drastically. It feels like it shouldn't have. How can we recover from the emptiness, which by its very nature forces our attention onto ourselves and our unmet needs, so that we become full of service to others?

Every change in our lives is a commissioning. Every loss is the beginning of a new calling. Every experience is training for a work of God's kingdom that the Lord wants to accomplish through us.

Why are you standing there looking at the sky? Jesus has been your teacher and your guide: Although you cannot see what he's doing now, he has not abandoned you. He is fulfilling his promise: "You will receive power from the Holy Spirit, and you will be my witness throughout the earth." Indeed, you were given that Holy Spirit in baptism, and it is this Spirit of God that empowers you to continue the ministry of Jesus using your particular gifts and talents and experiences.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What thresholds or new beginnings are you facing?
2. How are these opportunities for the continuation of the ministry of Jesus?
3. In what ways are you doing the works of Jesus?
4. Which parish ministries could use your gifts and talents?
5. How do you rely on the Holy Spirit to get it done?
