A Note From Fr. Bob

Dear Friends,

Grace and peace to you!

All Saints Day

Today, November 1st, is the Solemnity of All Saints. In the guide for our liturgies there is this description of All Saints Day, "Let us rejoice in all the men and women, blest in the eyes of the Lord, who celebrate the heavenly liturgy. They stand in God's holy place and sing of the love the Father has bestowed upon them through the blood of the Lamb." All throughout our year we honor particular saints on their feast days, but today we honor all those who are with our Father, known and unknown. People who are just like you and me who have lived their lives trying to follow God's will. They are our guides today and every day. They help us along in our journey to sainthood. As we honor them, may we rely on their prayers.

All Souls Day

Tomorrow, November 2nd, is the Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed, All Souls Day. During the month of November, we are called to remember our brothers and sisters who have gone to their rest in a special way. In addition to Mass on All Souls Day, we will do this in two special ways. First, we will have our Memorial Shrine in the front of church where we can place pictures of our deceased loved ones. Second, we will have our Memorial Book placed at the shrine. This book will be available for all to inscribe the names of our beloved dead. We will remember all those in this book throughout the month. If you are unable to come in person to record the names of your loved ones, please call the office or send me an email, revans@holyspiritstl.org, with their names and I will record them for you.

In years past it has been our tradition to celebrate a Mass of Remembrance in which the families of all those who have died in the past year are invited to join us in prayer. Considering the effect of the pandemic and all the concerns that have arisen, we have decided not to hold this Mass this year. We will remember all those who have died by name in our petitions next Sunday at all the Masses.

Thank you!

Thank you to all who expressed their prayers and concerns for me during my quarantine due to exposure to the coronavirus. Fortunately, it was an uneventful quarantine. I tested negative to the virus early in the period. I am grateful for your support and prayers. May we continue to pray for all those who work to keep us safe during these challenging times, especially our healthcare workers and first responders. Pray for end to the pandemic.

Let's continue to pray for each other this week.

Peace,

Father Bob

HONORING OUR DECEASED LOVED ONES

Once again this year we will have tables set up to display pictures of our deceased loved ones on tables in church near the organ. Please bring your framed pictures (Please, no larger than 5 x 7) to Mass with you on the weekend or drop them off at the Parish Office. The pictures will remain on display until the weekend before Thanksgiving.

GRANT US WISDOM: A PRAYER SERVICE FOR OUR COUNTRY & THE ELECTION

Come join your fellow parishioners as we pray for our country and the election! Holy Spirit will host a prayer service led by Fr. Bob that will include some formal prayer elements as well as time for individual prayer by participating in adoration before the Blessed Sacrament. (live streamed and in person) on Monday, November 2nd from 7-8pm. To attend in person, please call the parish office 314-739-0230 or sign up using this link

<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/4090F49ADAD2EA6FD0-grant>

or the sign up genius button found on the parish website www.holyspiritstl.org

This is a great opportunity to pray for our nation, the many issues faced by our country and to thank God for the many blessings we enjoy as Americans.

SOCIAL JUSTICE—LIVING JUSTLY

Let us pray for the gift of Counsel...

“Counsel, then, is the gift through which the Holy Spirit enables our conscience to make a concrete choice in communion with God, according to the logic of Jesus and His Gospel.”

~ Pope Francis, May 2014

We all need these gifts or otherwise our ignorance or misunderstanding clouds our perceptions.

Luke 16:9-15

You are a saint! A saint is anyone who's either in heaven or on their way to heaven.

As followers of Christ, we have been redeemed from sin. We have been reborn as "saints" and are no longer "sinners." Yes, we do sin every day; we have not yet perfected our sainthood. So we grow in holiness by learning to become more fully who God created us to be.

Today's first reading could be describing a huge prayer meeting in heaven, but it's not just about the after-life. You, right now, are part of that "great multitude" when you worship God enthusiastically. Every time we praise God, we're joining ourselves to the whole communion of saints, including our loved ones who passed into the after-life in the Lord's arms.

We're also united to them after our sins are absolved in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, for then we, too, have "washed our robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb." Until the next time we sin, we're on the Lord's mountain, standing in a holy place, because our hands are sinless, our hearts are clean, and we are not desiring what is vain (as the responsorial Psalm says).

As the second reading points out, we are saints because we are God's children. The saints in heaven have the advantage of being free from evil, while we live in a sin-filled world. But notice how we become pure: The hope (i.e., belief in God's promise) that eventually we'll behave like Christ all the time should energize us to purge unholiness from our lives today. This hope is based on knowing that Christ redeems us from sin, the Father forgives us, and after death, whatever clean-up still remains to be done, it will be accomplished thanks to purgatory.

The Church canonizes saints so we can have role models and so we know they're available for prayer support to assist us on our journey to heaven. May we learn from their example -- not to compare our lives to theirs, for we all have different circumstances in which to grow in holiness, but to be blessed by their spiritual guidance.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. How have you grown in holiness over the years?
2. Choose one way to grow in holiness this week.
3. Who is your favorite Saint in heaven? Why?
4. Name someone you know who is a good model of saintliness. What is holy about that person?
