THANKSGIVING DAY MASS

The 9:00 AM Mass on Thanksgiving Day will look a little different this year!

For those who bring food items that normally go on the "Thanks" table, please keep them with you in your pew. There will be a general blessing for all.

For those who bring food items that normally go on the "Giving" table, please place them in the HandS bin. You'll find that bin by the baptistry, in the back of church.

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

A Note From Fr. Bob

Dear Friends,

Grace and peace to you!

Happy Thanksgiving! May your day be filled with many blessings for you and your family. In years past, this would be the day for my family to gather for one feast to give thanks for all that we have received in the past year. This year we will continue to give thanks, but our gathering will be virtual. Each in our own homes having dinner with each other via Zoom! It won't be the same, but it will be safe.

Our parish celebration of Thanksgiving with the Eucharist will begin as usual at 9:00 am and will be live-streamed on our YouTube channel. In years past we have had two tables set up in the sanctuary for your own food and the gifts we give to the poor. Considering the concerns of the coronavirus surge, we ask that you place the gifts for the poor in the back of church by the baptistry and that you keep the food for your home celebration with you at your pew. We will bless all the food after the homily. Let's pray that we all remain safe during these days.

As we all know, tighter restrictions have been implemented throughout St. Louis County in response to the surge in virus cases. We continue to offer daily and weekend Masses as before, in-person and live-streamed. The reduction of the capacity limit to 25% has not affected our parish worship as our limit has also been based on how we might safely socially distance in our church. Therefore, our limit will remain at 150 people. We have reduced the number of people permitted in meetings to 10 for the duration of the tighter restrictions. Please check with the parish office if the meeting change has affected your group.

During the past few weeks, we have been providing music sheets to assist with our participation. As we begin the new liturgical year, we are making the new Breaking Bread Hymnals available to everyone. The hymnals are on the tables in the Gathering Area and near the side entrance. Please take one with you to use as your own. It will be yours to use for this new liturgical year. If you have any questions, please contact me. We will continue to publish the music on YouTube live-stream for those who participate virtually.

Did you know that Christmas is just 33 days away? Yes, it is rapidly approaching. The question is, how will we accommodate everyone who wishes to attend Mass in person for our celebration of Our Lord's birth? We plan to set up both the Parish Hall and Gym so that we can live-stream to both locations. In the next few weeks, we will be asking for your help by letting us know if you will be attending in person and which Mass you plan to attend. We believe that we will be able to have 500 people total with all 3 locations. Watch the bulletin and email blasts for more information.

Let's pray for each other this week!

Peace, Father Bob

Please be generous in this week's special collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. In the United States, one in six people lives in poverty. With this collection, you support programs that address the causes of poverty and provide a sustainable future for those struggling across the country. In addition, 25% of the funds we collect will remain in our diocese to fund local antipoverty projects. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this collection and work on the margins. Luke 21:34-36

We don't usually think of shepherds as kings, but the scriptures this Sunday describe the kingly powers of Jesus as our Good Shepherd. A good king cares for his subjects the way a shepherd cares for his sheep.

Kings increase the size of their reign and accomplish their work over the whole territory through their subjects. That's why Jesus says, "Whatever you do for one of the least of mine, you do for me."

For example, our Good Shepherd-King wants to distribute food to the hungry, all the way to the farthest reaches of his kingdom. How does he get it done? He gives an abundance of food to some of us and commands us to take it to those who need it.

What happens if we don't fulfill the King's commands? Do the starving people think the King is benevolent? No, they can only see his goodness when we do as he tells us to do.

Look at the people who are around you. Each one is an opportunity to give the King a good name.

What about the people whom you like least of all? What about those who've made you feel angry or intimidated or hurt? Well, ask this: What is he/she hungry for? If the answer's not obvious, ask the Holy Spirit. Observe that person long enough to identify the emptiness or pain or fears that are buried under the surface.

Then ask this: What abundance has God given to me that this "least one" is lacking and needs from Christ our King? Can I show him/her the King's benevolence despite my feelings?

When we say no to opportunities to share what we have, we are behaving like one of the goats whom the Good Shepherd-King separates from the sheep. And when we say yes, despite the feelings that could make us goat-like, the King's good reputation spreads, and we are all blessed.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What good things do you have in abundance? How readily do you share them?
2. Who is of least importance to you? How can you take your focus off of what you don't like about them so that you can give them what God wants to give to them through you?
3. Have you ever done something good to someone who didn't deserve it? How did this affect your relationship with Jesus?
4. What abundance do you see in each member of your family or faith sharing community that, when shared, blesses others?
