

Holy Spirit Parish Family

January 24, 2021 — Sunday of the Word of God

LITURGY OF THE WORD FOR CHILDREN IS SUSPENDED UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE.

OUR MISSION:

We, the community of Holy Spirit Parish, centered in the Eucharist, and guided by the Holy Spirit, will use our shared wisdom to be a joyful, accepting and forgiving community. We encourage all to grow in the Catholic faith by teaching and proclaiming the Gospel, serving others and praising God.

Holy Spirit Full Time school is hosting a Panera Bread restaurant fundraiser from 4–8 p.m. Please note this event will be at the MARYLAND HEIGHTS location near Westport NOT the Bridgeton location as in the past. Thank you in advance for your support for our school!

ST. PATRICK CENTER CASSEROLES

We will be collecting casseroles for St. Patrick Center Wed., Jan. 27, in the white bin at the curb outside the entrance to church, from 6:30–9 AM. In case of inclement weather, the bin will be in the small vestibule of the old church (now the parish hall). You can enter from the outside door. Pans & lids will be available for pick up. As always, thank you to our current volunteers for your generosity. If you are not currently making a casserole, but would like to join us, please call or email Mary Beth Schulte at 314-229-8067 or SpecRelEdu@aol.com.

ST. PATRICK CENTER SALAD SUNDAY—TODAY

Holy Spirit volunteers provide salads and/or components to help feed the homeless of St. Patrick Center, the 4th Sunday of each month. Salad and/or components will be collected between 8 & 10 AM TODAY, Sun.,

Jan. 24. The container will be in the Gathering Area. For more information, Ellen Staples, 422-2381.

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE!—REPENTANCE

The message we hear from the Gospel reading today is one that we must hear again and again: repent and believe the good news. This is the constant task of the faithful Christian, to seek to grow in virtue and root out sinfulness. The authentic witness of a disciple who has truly repented of his sins can work wonders in the cause of evangelization. We love conversion stories of the saints and people we know in our own lives today. One who has repented and has chosen to live for Christ alone provides an extraordinary example for us who want to be better evangelists.

A Note From Fr. Bob

Dear Friends,

Grace and peace to you!

Today we celebrate Word of God Sunday throughout all the dioceses of the world. In his letter, Aperuit illis, Pope Francis says this in the introduction,

“He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures” (Lk 24:45). This was one of the final acts of the risen Lord before his Ascension. Jesus appeared to the assembled disciples, broke bread with them and opened their minds to the understanding of the sacred Scriptures. To them, amid their fear and bewilderment, he unveiled the meaning of the paschal mystery: that in accordance with the Father’s eternal plan he had to suffer and rise from the dead, in order to bring repentance and the forgiveness of sins (cf. Lk 24:26.46-47). He then promised to send the Holy Spirit, who would give them strength to be witnesses of this saving mystery (cf. Lk 24:49).

The relationship between the Risen Lord, the community of believers and sacred Scripture is essential to our identity as Christians. Without the Lord who opens our minds to them, it is impossible to understand the Scriptures in depth. Yet the contrary is equally true: without the Scriptures, the events of the mission of Jesus and of his Church in this world would remain incomprehensible. Hence, Saint Jerome could rightly claim: “Ignorance of the Scriptures is ignorance of Christ”

As we celebrate the Word of God Sunday, a good question to ask ourselves is, “How will I make time in my life to sit with his Word and deepen my relationship with him?” What if we all took just 5 minutes each day to quietly read the Scriptures? What a difference that could make. Some ask, “Where do I start?” One way to read the Scriptures is to start at the beginning. Read until we find ourselves stopping on a particular word or phrase. Then sit with that and allow the Lord to speak to us. Another way is to read the daily Scripture for the Mass of the day. Either way is an opportunity to deepen our relationship with the Lord. It is an opportunity to come to know Christ more intimately. Let’s start today.

Several people have asked me if we are going to have our annual Seafood Dinner this year. If you recall, we canceled the dinner last year because of the pandemic and the shutdown that was implemented. We have discussed if it might be possible to have just a drive-through event. Following a great deal of discussion, we have decided to cancel the dinners again this year. Our concern is for the safety of all who participate, and it just doesn’t seem possible to keep our workers safe when they have to work in close proximity to one another. Thank you for your understanding and thank you for your continued support of our parish.

Let’s pray for each other this week.

Peace,
Father Bob

MERCY TAKE ME AWAY

Are you or someone you know looking for a quiet work space? Somewhere to be by yourself for a few hours?

SOCIAL JUSTICE

Pope Francis: "Every ecological approach needs to incorporate a social perspective which takes into account the fundamental rights of the poor and the under privileged." "We need to hear the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor."

As Dr. Martin Luther King said, "Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere."

FROM DEATH TO NEW LIFE

We express our deep sympathy and assurance of our prayers to the families of Tamara Cannon, sister of Brenda (Dave) Hass; and Pat DeWitt, mother of Matt.

May her soul rest in the Peace of Christ.

Today's Gospel reading is a call to surrender ourselves fully to God. "Now is the time of fulfillment" – not just 2000 years ago, not at the Second Coming of Christ, but right now in your life when and where you need Jesus the most.

"The kingdom of God is at hand" – what you need from the Lord is right here, at hand, ready for you.

"Repent, and believe in the gospel" means "Come follow Me and learn from Me to become like Me." For the first disciples, it meant dropping whatever they were doing to spend so much time with Jesus that their whole lives were forever affected.

And this is what it means for you and for me: We have to put aside our own agendas and overly busy schedules to spend more time following Jesus wherever he leads us.

In the modern world, we have become more dependent on our technological devices than on Jesus. Many of us cannot even go on vacation without remaining accessible to their employers via the cell phone. Somehow, we need to find a way to take a stand against this.

It's one of the social justice teachings of the Church: We are actually called by God to rebel against working on Sundays and other days of rest. Why? Because we need to spend that time with Jesus quietly being restored and re-energized.

Unfortunately, Jesus doesn't walk through the door and circle dates on our calendar and write "Rest with Jesus" on it so that we can plan ahead. We have to follow his lead at a moment's notice – every moment. To experience the kingdom of God on the earthly side of heaven, we have to be willing to drop everything to follow Jesus into unfamiliar places at unexpected times. We have to learn to follow his lead even in situations where his way is the surprising way.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What's on your to-do list? What keeps you busy? What are your goals for the future? What are you dreaming of?
2. If Jesus has a different plan for your day or for your life, how easily could you switch over to new ideas and plans?
3. What are some of the nets you've abandoned in the past in order to follow Jesus? How difficult was that to do?
4. Are you happy about it now? Why? How was this an experience of the kingdom of God on earth?
