DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE! — DIVINE AUTHORITY

Jesus drives out the unclean spirit in the man in the synagogue in today's Gospel. He thus reveals His authority as being fully divine and capable of subjecting evil spirits to His power. Similarly, the psalm reminds us that it is important for us to heed the powerful voice of the Lord and not to harden our hearts. When we feel moved by the Holy Spirit to proclaim the Good News to another person or to do a kind act of charity, follow the promptings of the Holy Spirit. Seize the opportunities that you have each day to give witness to your faith in the Son of God. Use His Name to take authority in trying situations!

A Note From Fr. Bob

Dear Friends,

Grace and peace to you!

This weekend in our parish and throughout the Archdiocese of St. Louis, we are beginning our observance of Catholic Schools Week. This annual celebration of Catholic Education takes place annually and is an opportunity to not only highlight the Catholic education mission in our parish, but also to say thank you to all in our parish who support our efforts. Catholic education would not be possible without the support of generous parishioners. Thank you!

In our parish we have two primary missions of providing Catholic education, our fulltime school and our Parish School of Religion (PSR). Our fulltime school serves families with children from Preschool to the Eighth Grade and our PSR serves families with children from the First to the Eighth Grade. Current enrollment in the fulltime school is 210 with 190 K-8. PSR enrollment is 90.

To say that this year has been impacted by the pandemic would be a gross understatement. Both programs have experienced great challenges posed by dealing with COVID-19. Our school has seen a mix of in-person and remote classes and periodic quarantines and our PSR program has been utilizing remote classes for the entire year. Both programs have responded exceptionally to the challenges thanks to the leadership of our Principal, Mrs. Katie Koberlein and PSR Director, Mrs. Sharon Kaufman. Both would tell you that none of our success would have been possible if not for the dedication of our teachers and catechists and the support of our parents. Thank you all and may God continue to bless you in your efforts provide Catholic Education in our parish.

If you have questions about our educational programs, please contact either Mrs. Koberlein or Mrs. Kaufman.

Let's pray for each other this week and continue to pray for end to the pandemic.

Peace,

Father Bob

PRO-LIFE NEWS

Is Missouri the first “abortion-free” or “abortion clinic free” state in the country?

It is true that the number of abortions performed in Missouri is on the decline! However: “Reproductive Health Services of Planned Parenthood of the St. Louis Region (RHS of PPCLR), has apparently stopped doing abortions in St. Louis since at least Nov. 1, 2020. However, the RHS of PPCLR is still a legally licensed abortion facility by the state of Missouri. The facility & its staff is still ready, willing, & able to perform abortions. Abortions on Missouri women & their unborn children have not stopped. Even if the claim that abortions have apparently halted at the St. Louis facility is true, Missouri women who go there are still being sent to the Planned Parenthood Fairview Heights Health Center in Illinois for surgical & chemical abortions. Beyond Planned Parenthood, abortions are still being offered in Missouri by at least one health system in the cases of perceived “fetal abnormalities” & perceived “maternal health conditions”/“mother’s health being at risk.”

~ Respect Life Apostolate Statement on Missouri’s Abortion Status- Jan. 20, 2021.

Mark 6:30-34

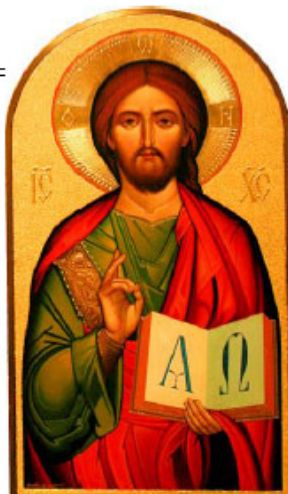

This Sunday's Gospel reading illustrates the authority of Jesus. If we truly accept and understand his authority over our lives, we can rejoice in the Lord even when life hands us hardships.

Why? Because we know that Christ's authority is supreme, which means that everything we've placed under his authority will produce good fruits. Even bad situations will be transformed into blessings. Tragedies will be changed into triumphs. Sorrows will be transfigured into joy. Frustrations will lay the groundwork for new growth, new knowledge, and a greater ability to minister to others.

However, if we reject Christ's authority by acting as if we're the ones in charge, deciding for ourselves how to end a problem or how and when to escape from a hardship, our problems will only get worse. This is called "moral relativism." Pope Francis wrote in his Apostolic Exhortation on the Gospel of Joy (Evangelii Gaudium, paragraph 64) that this leads to a feeling of disorientation instead of joy.

The path to joy has been forged by the footsteps of Jesus. To benefit from his authority over evil and over human sufferings, we have to follow his example and obey his teachings. This means choosing to trust him, realizing that his ways are the best ways even when they're unpleasant ways. It means that we're willing to reach resurrection glory by going through the cross with Jesus.

There are no successful shortcuts to the triumphant victory that awaits us. There is no easy way to overcome evil. If this were not true, Jesus wouldn't have needed to die on a cross.

The good news – the reason why we can rejoice – is that the most loving, most powerful, most wise One in the universe is using his supreme authority on our behalf. The question is: Will we submit to it?

Reflect & Discuss:

1. In what ways are you still rejecting Christ's authority by trying to do things your own way? Which Church teachings have you been rejecting because you've decided to live by your own rules?
2. Are you willing to ask the Holy Spirit to change your mind on these matters and teach you the value of Christ's ways?
3. In what ways do Christians often reject Christ's authority in favor of defining their own rules? Why?
4. What are the apparent risks to living completely under Christ's strict authority?
5. How can we replace these risks with a sense of safety?
