DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE! – PERSEVERANCE

One can sense from the readings today that a real need exists for the preaching of the Gospel. Jesus is so resolved to preach the Gospel to as many people as possible even though he certainly must have felt fatigue & the desire for more time in solitude as he prayed in the early hours of the morning. These readings teach us the blessing we have to proclaim the Gospel to others in word & deed. Seize the opportunities you have to speak of Jesus Christ to others! The time is always ripe to share the Good News. God can work through our simple “yes” to chances we have each day to bring Jesus Christ to the lives of others.

Journeying Through Difficult Times -Together

What is Stephen Ministry?

Stephen Ministry is based on showing Christ's love to one another. It involves one-to-one confidential caring relationships for those who are hurting and need love and support. Everyone goes through difficult times. If you are going through something difficult like divorce, loss of a job, death of a loved one, financial difficulties or a serious illness you should consider asking for a Stephen Minister. Having someone to care, to listen, to share God's love with you can help you get through the confusion, stress, or loneliness you may be experiencing.

Even in time of COVID-19 we can offer tele-visits by phone or Facetime to continue our mission and to stay safe.

Stephen Ministry is alive and well at Holy Spirit Parish. It is a quiet ministry available for all of the members of the parish. Consider allowing a Stephen Minister to walk with you on your journey to wholeness.

A Note From Fr. Bob

Dear Friends,

Grace and peace to you!

Next Sunday we celebrate the Sixth Sunday of Ordinary Time and then move into the penitential season of Lent with Ash Wednesday on February 17th. So that we might prepare the ashes, we need your old palm. Throughout this week and next Sunday there will be boxes for you to deposit your palm located in the Gathering Area and the west transept entrance. During the time that the church is closed, there will be a box outside at the main entrance and at the front door of the Parish Office. In consideration of the restrictions currently in place, we will not have the Ashmake and potluck that we have had the past couple of years. We will burn the ashes privately on Tuesday. Hopefully, we will have it next year.

As noted, Ash Wednesday is Wednesday, February 17th. Parish Masses will be celebrated at 6:30 am, 8:00 am, and 7:00 pm. The imposition of ashes this year will be very different from what we are used to in our country. The Vatican and the United States Conference of Bishops have called for the sprinkling of ashes on our head instead of placing them on our foreheads. This is to minimize contact between the minister and the recipient. It will also be done in silence so as to further minimize contact. While this is so different from our practice, it recalls the ancient penitential practice found throughout the Old Testament. It also follows the exhortation found in the Gospel of Matthew for Ash Wednesday, what we do, we do in secret for our Father in heaven sees what we do. Perhaps this method of adapting to today's situation will be an opportunity for a further deepening of our personal approach to Lent. Let's pray for a deepening of our relationship with our Lord this Lent.

And let's continue to pray for each other and an end to the pandemic.

Peace,

Father Bob

GRATITUDE

Our family wishes to express our deepest gratitude to all of you for the many prayers and well wishes for Rich especially during the last three months. He struggled so much during this time and it was a great blessing to be part of such a caring parish family.

PRO-LIFE NEWS

On January 1 the Church celebrated the Solemnity of Mary, Holy Mother of God. This feast of Mary reminds us of the great miracle of motherhood, and it reveals how God has elevated and sanctified the vocation of mothers. As we embark on a New Year, may we invite the Blessed Mother to guide us in our hopeful planning. We pray that through her intercession each of our hearts may be renewed with empathy and increased awareness of the challenges that so many mothers face in welcoming and caring for the gift of life. May Our Blessed Mother inspire in us a desire and resolve to increase our compassionate care and support of mothers in need throughout the year ahead.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

To solve environmental problems we need to look to technology and a change of humanity. Replace consumption with sacrifice, greed with generosity, wastefulness with sharing, and an asceticism that entails Giving, and not simply to "Give Up." Sharing on a global scale. The divine and human meet in the slightest detail in the seamless garment of God's creation, in the last speck of dust of our planet.

A NOTE FROM SHARON KAUFMAN

Dear Holy Spirit Parish Family,

After much prayer and discernment, I have decided to retire at the end of this current fiscal year. My last day will be June 30, 2021. I have truly enjoyed my ministry at Holy Spirit and you all have blessed me (and my family) more than you will know. It has been a wonderful 10 years with many changes, experiences and growth as we have journeyed together in faith.

This time of pandemic has helped me to see that the opportunities for family time are especially important to me and need to be attended to on a more regular basis. During my retirement, I hope to be able to spend more time with our family especially my elderly parents and our grandchildren. My husband's, Deacon Scott, recent cancer diagnosis has also caused me to see that it is now time to concentrate on my family's wellbeing as my first priority. While I will miss each and every one of you, we will remain parishioners and you will continue to see me, and Deacon Scott, involved in parish life.

Fr. Bob will be leading a search committee to find a new CRE/Pastoral Associate who will begin next summer and hopefully we will be able to work together in June to create a seamless transition.

I am thankful for Fr. Bob's leadership and the wonderful professional staff that I have worked with during these past 10 years. This parish is amazing and will continue to be a vibrant, faith-filled community for years to come.

My prayer for each of you is that you live your life to the fullest, handing your life over to God to lead you on the path he has chosen for you and to serve him as we help each other get to heaven!

Jesus is our light!

Yours truly,

Sharon Kaufman

Today's reading from St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians describes my own ministry of writing this and other bulletin articles:

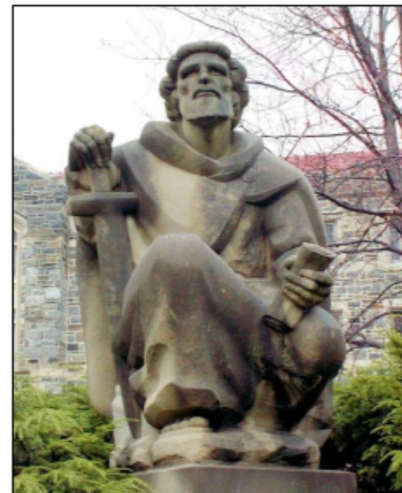

If I preach the Good News, this is no reason for me to boast, because I have an obligation to do this, and woe to me if I do not do it! If I do so willingly, I'm rewarded for it, but if unwillingly, I'm merely fulfilling my responsibility of stewardship. What then is my reward? That, when I share the Good News, I am able to offer it free of charge so that all may benefit.

Saint Paul was not saying it's wrong to charge a fee. In fact, Jesus said that the worker deserves his wages (Luke 10:7). But Paul knew that what matters most is being a good steward of the gifts that God has given us.

What are the gifts that God has given you? We have all been entrusted with an obligation to continue the ministry of Christ on earth in our contemporary world. A Christian who does not follow Christ in ministry has a lazy faith, or a self-focused faith, an unlively faith.

Using your gifts, talents, wisdom, knowledge, compassion, etc., generously for the benefit of the faith of others is an alive faith. The immediate reward is a joyful awareness of being in partnership with Christ.

The Gospel reading shows us the generosity of Peter's mother-in-law in sharing her talent of hospitality. And it shows us the determination of Jesus to preach the gospel widely and tirelessly.

Both are examples of good stewardship. All gifts and talents and financial earnings are blessings from God that are meant to be shared. This is how to feel fully alive in the faith!

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What have you received from God?
2. How much of it is being shared with others?
3. What seems too inadequate to give away?
4. How can you become a better steward of God's gifts?
5. Name any service that you provide: How important is it to you that you keep doing it no matter what?
6. How important to Jesus do you think it is? Why?
