A Note From Fr. Bob

Dear Friends,

Grace and peace to you!

“Are we there yet?” How often did we say that as children whenever we were traveling? I can recall when our family took car trips, it didn’t matter how far we traveled, someone would always ask, “Are we there yet?”

Recently, many news stories have been published reflecting on the fact that we have just reached a year in the pandemic. Many recall the abrupt changes that took place last March when we entered a lockdown to prevent the spread of the COVID-19 virus. No one knew then when it would end but most were hoping that it would be just a few months. I know I thought that we would be through the pandemic by mid-summer last year. I was sure overly optimistic. And now I wonder, “Are we there yet?” It sure seems that we are getting close. There has been a steady decrease in new cases of the virus. Many are now able to receive the vaccine. We have noticed a marked increase in Mass attendance over the past few weeks. Several weeks ago we would typically see between 60 and 80 people at our Masses. This past weekend a couple of the Masses saw almost 140 people each. It sure is nice to see more people coming to Mass.

As we have seen increases in attendance, we have also made a few adjustments. You might have noticed that the benches that are placed in the windows for Christmas and Easter are again in place. This is to provide those who wish, the opportunity to sit at a greater distance from others, and yet still attend Mass. You may have also noticed that it may take a little more time to find a place to sit. This is time for flexibility and patience. Thanks to all for accommodating others as they look for a seat. I look forward to the day when restrictions are lifted. Are we there yet? Not quite.

Today we celebrate Laetare Sunday, the mid-point of Lent. It takes its name from the first word of the Entrance Antiphon, “Rejoice, Jerusalem, and all who love her.” You will notice that the priests will wear rose colored vestments for rose is the color of joy. On this day, flowers are permitted on the altar and the organ may be played more fully. All to mark that we are now at the half-way point and we really begin to look with expectation to the great Solemnity of Easter.

Are we there yet? Not quite. There is still more preparation ahead. But for today, let us rejoice for the graces we have received. I am profoundly grateful for the heroic sacrifices of our healthcare workers and first responders. They have put their lives on the line daily and deserve our continued prayers and gratitude. I am also grateful for our teachers and catechists who have made extraordinary adjustments and have gone above and beyond to simultaneously teach students in person and remotely. I pray that they continue to have strength and determination as we come to our last quarter of the school year.

These past weeks have been a sign of hope, let’s continue to pray for each other and for an end to the pandemic.

Peace,

Father Bob

SOCIAL JUSTICE

This is not new statements or exhortations. Patriarch Bartholomew "has spoken of the need for each of us to repent of the way we have harmed the planet, generating small ecological damage." We need to acknowledge our part in the disfigurement and destruction of creation. "For human beings to destroy the biological diversity of God's creation, to degrade the integrity of the earth by causing climate changes, by stripping the earth of its forests or destroying wetlands; for human beings to contaminate the earth's waters, its land, its air and its life. These are sins."

PRO-LIFE NEWS

PUBLIC POLICY UPDATE

U.S. Bishop Chairmen for Doctrine and for Pro-Life Address the Use of the Johnson & Johnson Covid-19 Vaccine, March 2, 2021

"Pfizer and Moderna's vaccines raised concerns because an abortion-derived cell line was used for testing them, but not in their production. The Johnson & Johnson vaccine, however, was developed, tested and is produced with abortion-derived cell lines raising additional moral concerns... [I]f one can choose among equally safe and effective COVID-19 vaccines, the vaccine with the least connection to abortion-derived cell lines should be chosen. Therefore, if one has the ability to choose a vaccine, Pfizer or Moderna's vaccines should be chosen over Johnson & Johnson's."

PSR SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The PSR Scholarship Fund has been established to assist PSR families who need financial assistance with their PSR tuition. Parent(s) wishing to be considered for a scholarship must complete a PSR Financial Assistance Form for the current year and submit it to the CRE for approval. Donations to the PSR Scholarship Fund may be made in honor of or in memory of an individual as well as general contributions. This is a wonderful way to pay tribute to someone who has made a difference in helping your family grow in faith.

Donations may be made by check or cash or through the electronic giving site found on the parish website www.holyspiritstl.org. Go to the online giving tab and log in or create an account. When setting up a new donation, look for the "PSR Scholarship" choice in the designations for donations. To designate an honorarium or memorial donation, please include information on the memo field or if mailing a check, please include a note. All donations are tax deductible.

Journeying Through Difficult Times -Together

What is Stephen Ministry?

Stephen Ministry is based on showing Christ's love to one another. It involves one-to-one confidential caring relationships for those who are hurting and need love and support. Everyone goes through difficult times. If you are going through something difficult like divorce, loss of a job, death of a loved one, financial difficulties or a serious illness you should consider asking for a Stephen Minister. Having someone to care, to listen, to share God's love with you can help you get through the confusion, stress, or loneliness you may be experiencing.

Even in time of COVID-19 we can offer tele-visits by phone or Facetime to continue our mission and to stay safe.

Stephen Ministry is alive and well at Holy Spirit Parish. It is a quiet ministry available for all of the members of the parish. Consider allowing a Stephen Minister to walk with you on your journey to wholeness.

Why do we prefer to conceal our sins rather than face them and go to the Sacrament of Reconciliation and speak about them out loud?

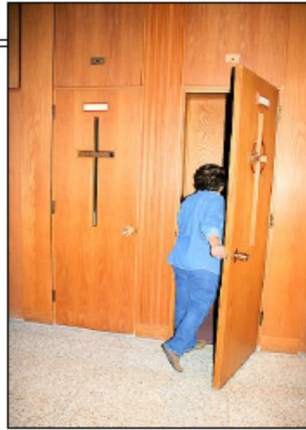

It's Jesus who meets us in the confessional, appearing to us in the form of a priest who's sworn to secrecy. In the Gospel reading, Jesus assures us that he did not come to condemn us. It is safe to come into the light where our sins are exposed.

However, we don't like going to Confession when guilt is driving us deeper into the darkness of low self-esteem, the fear of being unlovable, or an inability to forgive ourselves.

Guilt is a good motivator for repentance, and regret motivates us to change, but low self-esteem triggers shame, which says that we are undeserving of forgiveness.

Shame makes us even more afraid to face the truth about our sins.

However, God's image of you is not poor: He sees what is wonderful about you. He says you do deserve forgiveness. He wants to replace shame with joy. What keeps you from repenting? Perhaps you would benefit from a therapist or spiritual director who helps you heal from low self-esteem. Whatever opportunity will help you get into the confessional, this is where your healing begins.

Jesus completes the healing by curing your spirit with forgiveness, mercy, and unconditional love through the words of absolution that he speaks to you through the priest.

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus points out that whoever lives the truth (whoever is honest about themselves) "comes to the light" to be rescued. When we admit our sins, speaking it out loud to the ears of one of Christ's servants, we are rescued by Jesus. We hear Jesus minister to us through the vocal chords of the priest, and we receive from Jesus the power to resist the same sins in the future.

Why suffer any longer, hiding in the darkness of fear and a poor self-image? Jesus has come to rescue you!

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What do you feel ashamed about? Have you taken this to the Sacrament of Reconciliation? If not, what are you waiting for? Blessings and healing await you!
2. Why does admitting our sins and receiving the Sacrament of Reconciliation set us free to live in joy and peace?
3. Describe a time when you lived in darkness; how did Jesus bring you into the light?
