A Note From Fr. Bob

Dear Friends,

Grace and peace to you!

Today we celebrate the Fifth Sunday of Lent and next Sunday we begin the holiest of all weeks, Holy Week. This season of Lent seems to have gone by quickly, too quickly. How has your Lent been? If it has been difficult, perhaps this is a time to regroup and refocus on what we have been attempting. Maybe this is a time to let some of these resolutions go and consider how our Lord has been trying to help us open ourselves to his grace. My prayer is that we all receive an outpouring of his grace so that we might be ready to experience this holy moment of our salvation at Easter.

Please note that on Palm Sunday we will use what is called "The Solemn Entrance". All will be in place in church rather than in the Parish Hall. Please pick up your palms on the way into church. They will be blessed at the beginning of Mass. Palms will be available for pick up outside church following Mass for those who cannot attend in person. Holy Saturday Mass will also begin inside church with the light of the fire and blessing of the Paschal Candle. Here is the schedule of our Holy Week services.

HOLY WEEK

Sacrament of Reconciliation Saturday the 27th 9:00 AM to 4:30 PM

Mass: Saturday, 5PM, Sunday, 7:30am, 9am, and 11am Please pick up palms as you enter and proceed to your place in church.

Palms will be available for pickup outside the Parish Hall following Mass.

The Altar of Repose will be in the Parish Hall and available for a visit until 11:00 PM

FROM DEATH TO NEW LIFE

We express our deep sympathy and assurance of our prayers to the family of Marie Tucker, mother of Jeff (Denise) Tucker, grandfather of Emily & Harrison; and Herman Ponder, father of Brian (Debbie) Ponder and Mary (Ken) Moore.

May her soul rest in the Peace of Christ.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

ON THE DEATH PENALTY

"The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops has also long called for an end to the death penalty because it is an affront to human dignity, is racially and economically biased, and is often arbitrary based on location. Perhaps worst of all, more than 170 people have been wrongfully convicted and sentenced to death only later to be exonerated.

The terrible loss of the families of victims must be considered as well. So much energy and resources go into carrying out executions. We urge you to redirect these resources towards providing compassionate and professional assistance to the families of victims.

With modern prisons, we do not need the death penalty to keep us safe. We can accomplish justice without it and strengthen respect for the sacred dignity of every human life, which is so needed today." 1/11/2021 Letter from USCCB to Congress

PRO-LIFE NEWS

March 19th was the Solemnity of St. Joseph and March 25th is the Feast of the Annunciation

"As Catholics we rightly find inspiration in Mary's beautiful "fiat", her "yes" to God's will at the Annunciation, but we should also recall Joseph's own faithful "yes" to God's plan for salvation. Despite the unusual circumstances of Mary's pregnancy, "Joseph accepted Mary unconditionally" (Patris corde, 4). It is Joseph who welcomed the Christ child as his own son, gave Jesus his name as revealed by the angel, and continually protected and provided for the needs of the Holy Family. "In every situation, Joseph declared his own 'fiat'" (PC, 3). Through his constant care for both mother and child, Joseph makes a true gift of himself. God chose this humble carpenter of Nazareth to guide the beginnings of our redemption, and it is Joseph "who was able to turn a problem into a possibility by trusting always in divine providence" (PC, 5). Inspired by St. Joseph, may we proactively help mothers welcome and care for the gift of new life."

In our desire to trust God and follow Jesus wherever he leads us, it's not a sin to feel troubled about it.

Yes, we do have to be willing to lose our lives (i.e., our own agendas, our own desires, our own ideas on what we should do with our time, etc.) so that we can unite ourselves to Christ and his mission. However, we don't have to like the loss.

The Gospel reading shows us that Jesus felt troubled by the sacrifices he would have to make. Yes, even Jesus himself felt troubled! And the Father glorified him.

Jesus came to earth to reveal God's ways and God's love and lead us to heaven. Now we, his followers, are called, commissioned, and prepared by the Sacraments to reveal God's ways and God's love to those around us, so that Jesus can lead them to heaven. That is the mission, the purpose of being Church, for all of us – laity as well as clergy.

The Sacrament of Baptism initiates us into this calling. Confirmation commissions us to do it. Confession enables us to do it better. Marriage and Holy Orders give us a venue for perfecting it. The Anointing of the Sick converts our illnesses into opportunities to bear witness to Christ's Passion. And the Eucharist unites us so fully to the Passion of Christ that we become what we are called to do.

This is our everyday ministry of evangelization: We love others as Jesus loves them, we do for them what Jesus would like to do for them, and we spread the good news about this as a continuation of the ministry of Jesus.

Often, this involves making sacrifices and doing good to those who reject us and scourge us and crucify us or in any other way cause us to suffer. This is our unity with Christ, our Passion. We're not supposed to like it, but we are supposed to do it.

The Father honors us for this. Just like he glorified Jesus, he honors us with his compassion, his rewards, and his approval.

It's okay to feel troubled by the challenges we face in our mission. What keeps us going is knowing that God is raising us up. There is always resurrection after crucifixion.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What troubles are you facing? Where is Jesus in this? Is he ahead of you, leading the way? Are you following him?
2. How do you feel hearing Jesus admit, "I am troubled now"?
3. When you make sacrifices for others, how does this connect you more closely to the human heart of Jesus?
4. How does the Father honor you as you serve in Christ's mission?
