HOLY SPIRIT PRAYER CHAIN

Praying for one another is one of the most powerful things we can do for each other. It can be done at any time & in any place. You can make prayer requests or pray for others or both. Presently we have over 125 people who receive prayer requests by phone or email. If you are already praying, you do NOT need to sign up. If you would like to join us or request prayers, please contact the parish office, 739-0230, leave a message for Sharon Kaufman or prayerchain@holyspiritstl.org

LADIES CLUB

Ladies of Holy Spirit, members of the Ladies Club... Please join us @ 1 PM @ Hellebusch Park Pavillion, Bridgeton, on April 13th. We are going to try to re-assess the year and plan the election of officers. Meeting is rain or shine! Please call if you have any questions or need directions. Karen 291-1971.

A Note From Fr. Bob

Dear Friends,

Grace and peace to you!

Today we begin the holiest of all weeks, Holy Week! As we celebrate our Lord's entrance into Jerusalem today may we all be filled with his grace as we remember how much he loves each one of us. So much so, that he has given his life for us that we might have eternal life. Wow! It truly is an amazing gift to all of creation.

As I was preparing this article on Friday morning, March 19th, the Solemnity of St. Joseph, I looked back at last year's article to see how much life has changed over the year. Last year's article contained a surprise memory. In the present year, this past Friday, March 26th, Father Jerry celebrated his 55th anniversary of Ordination to the Priesthood. Blessings to Father Jerry for saying yes, and blessings to all of us for his ministry here at Holy Spirit and throughout these past 55 years.

This celebration of Holy Week will be a little different from the traditional celebration. Last year it was all in private and live-streamed. This year all are welcome, and we will live-stream. Some changes, Holy Thursday Mass will be the same except that we will not have the Washing of Feet. During the Good Friday service, the Adoration of the Holy Cross will see just the presider actually touching the cross. All others may venerate through genuflecting or bowing. At the Easter Vigil, Holy Saturday, the fire will take place inside church with an alcohol fire, and everyone will already be in their places for the start of Mass. Candles will be lighted from the Easter Candle as usual. Easter Sunday Masses will be celebrated without any changes except those that are already in place for COVID.

My prayer for each of us this week is that we might enter deeply into this mystery of his love. Take time this week to join our community in prayer. Each in our own way can participate in the liturgies, either in person or virtually. May we all recognize his love for us.

May we also continue to pray for each other.

Peace,

Father Bob

PSR SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The PSR Scholarship Fund has been established to assist PSR families who need financial assistance with their PSR tuition. Parent(s) wishing to be considered for a scholarship must complete a PSR Financial Assistance Form for the current year and submit it to the CRE for approval. Donations to the PSR Scholarship Fund may be made in honor of or in memory of an individual as well as general contributions. This is a wonderful way to pay tribute to someone who has made a difference in helping your family grow in faith.

Donations may be made by check or cash or through the electronic giving site found on the parish website www.holyspiritstl.org. Go to the online giving tab and log in or create an account. When setting up a new donation, look for the "PSR Scholarship" choice in the designations for donations. To designate an honorarium or memorial donation, please include information on the memo field or if mailing a check, please include a note. All donations are tax deductible.

SOCIAL JUSTICE ON RACISM

In November 2018, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops approved a new pastoral letter against racism, Open Wide Our Hearts: The Enduring Call to Love. In the letter, the bishops invite all people of faith to conversion. We are called to open our minds and hearts to Christ's love for all people and to the experiences of those who have been harmed by the evil of racism... The process of praying through, reflecting upon, and acting upon the message of the pastoral letter is hard work, but it is work from which all will benefit. ...The bishops write, "Finally, too often racism comes in the form of the sin of omission, when individuals, communities, and even churches remain silent and fail to act against racial injustice when it is encountered."

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE! – HUMILITY

While Jesus was experiencing crucifixion, suffering the death of one who was a criminal, people reviled Him saying, "You who would destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, save yourself, if you are the Son of God, [and] come down from the cross!" St. Thomas Aquinas once wrote that the cross exemplifies every virtue. Humility was certainly among those virtues. Just as Jesus experienced a most humble birth in a manger surrounded by animals, He also suffered a most humble death. The King of Kings and Lord of Lords is judged by a governor and suffers the death of a criminal. He could have come down from the cross and freed Himself of the pain. Instead, He humbled Himself and died for you, for me, for all people. One of the best responses we can have as we gaze upon the Crucified One is silence and contemplation. We adore You, O Christ, and we praise You, because, by Your holy cross, You have redeemed the world.

Ps 31:2, 6, 12-13, 15-17, 25
Hebrews 4:14-16; 5:7-9
John 18:1-19:42

Today begins a week of focusing on the Passion of the Cross – the sufferings and death that Jesus endured because of his tremendous love for us. But first let's take a look at the passion of the woman who anointed Jesus with perfume.

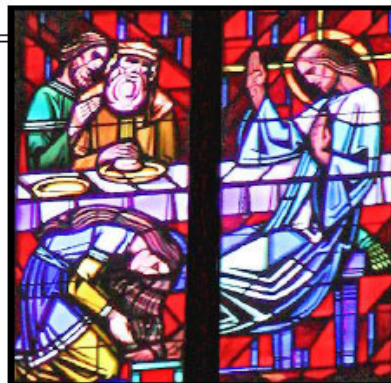

In those days, when people made perfumes, they created a mixture of oils and herbs, then let it sit in a jar to ferment. The longer they stored it, the more potent – and valuable – it became. For the perfume in today's scripture to be a "costly" gift for Jesus, it must have been fermenting for a long time.

When we want to give someone a gift, we usually go to the store to buy something new. But our most precious possessions are those that have been important to us for many years. Giving them to others feels like a very huge sacrifice.

What do you hold onto because it means so much to you? What has been fermenting in value because you've had it for such a long time? Can you imagine giving it away? Most of us couldn't do it unless we feel very passionate about the person to whom we give it. The giving has to be more valuable than the keeping. This happens only because of love.

How passionate do you feel about Jesus? What's so precious to you that it's hard to let go of – something that he'd appreciate receiving from you? Are you willing to sacrifice this because of the love you feel for him? Do you feel that much love for him?

In other words, what's in your alabaster jar? Are you ready to pour it out to Jesus, freely and generously?

Think about what he poured out for you so generously. Think about this all week, at Mass on Holy Thursday, and on Good Friday, and in the tomb-like quiet of Holy Saturday.

And again, ask yourself: "What's so precious that it's hard to let go of -- something that Jesus would appreciate receiving?" And then give it to him before the week ends; he will give you a new victory on Easter.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What gift can you give Jesus as a thank-you? What's so precious that anointing Jesus with it will be a gift of sacrificial love?
2. What's in your alabaster jar? What talents or treasures or wisdom have you stored up, saved, protected, and developed, or what have you put on a shelf and forgotten about?
3. As we prepare for Good Friday, come up with ideas on how to offer these saved-up gifts to Jesus. Why are these gifts like perfume to Jesus?
