A Note From Fr. Bob

October 19, 2020

Dear Holy Spirit Parish Community,

I was notified today that I have been exposed to someone who tested positive for COVID-19. Per the direction of the St. Louis County Department of Health, I will need to self-quarantine for 14 days from the date of my exposure. I am not experiencing any symptoms of COVID-19; however, I will be in quarantine through November 2nd and will continue to monitor myself for symptoms.

Per the direction of the health department, no additional actions are recommended for our parish community at this time. In my absence, Father Meier will be celebrating Masses and offering the sacraments. All regular Mass and sacrament schedules will remain in place at this time, and we continue to offer livestream Masses daily and on Sundays at 9:00 am, which are on our YouTube channel, <https://youtube.com/channel/UC4yid2iigw4TuFYc6mD4kBw> (or click on the link on our home page, www.holyspiritstl.org).

I will continue to share any additional important updates regarding this situation with all of you. Holy Spirit Parish continues to follow the guidelines and directives of the health department and CDC in all our Masses and parish activities.

As a reminder, if you or anyone in your family begins feeling symptoms of COVID-19, please contact your doctor. If your doctor recommends that you or a family member receive a COVID-19 test, please contact your local health department, and please let me know so that we can take the necessary precautions.

If you have any questions or concerns, I will make every effort to help. You may also find additional COVID-19 resources at archstl.org/coronavirus.

I ask for your prayers through this challenging time, and I continue to pray for all of you.

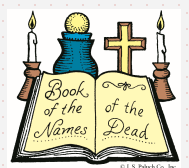

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Father Robert T. Evans
Pastor

PRO-LIFE NEWS

OCTOBER INTENTION: PRAY FOR LIFE

Twenty-five years ago, Pope St. John Paul II wrote that the Gospel of life is at the heart of Jesus' saving message to the world (Evangelium vitae 1). In taking on human flesh, dwelling among us, and sacrificing his very life for our redemption, Christ reveals the profound dignity of every human person. Jesus calls each of us to "care for the other as a person for whom God has made us responsible" (EV 87).

Through the intercession of Our Lady of the Rosary, may Our Lord grant us the grace to truly and courageously live his Gospel of life.

On October 22 the Church celebrated the feast of Pope St. John Paul II. In honor of his feast day, read a brief summary of Evangelium vitae (The Gospel of Life). <https://www.respectlife.org/gospel-of-life-summary>

Luke 14:1, 7-11

Today's Gospel reading reminds us that we cannot love God without loving ourselves and others, but God must always come first.

When we have difficulty loving God with all our heart, mind and soul all the time, every day, every moment, no matter what's going on, it's because we're spending too much time focused on other people and/or on our own plans and wishes.

Yes, we must focus on others in order to love them. And yes we must focus on our own needs so that we can love others as much as we love ourselves. Our own needs are important and we are responsible for seeing that our needs get met; otherwise we don't have enough to share with others— enough energy or enthusiasm or kindness or patience. Likewise, we shouldn't focus so much on ourselves that we neglect the needs of others.

So the question then becomes: What are the priorities? In other words: How much time should we spend alone with God? How much time should we spend nurturing ourselves? How much of our time and needs and wants should be sacrificed for the sake of others?

Interestingly, we find the right balance only after we put God first and make our relationship with him our highest priority. This divine friendship is what heals us in our unmet needs. It's what empowers us to love others even when they are difficult to love. And we don't have to be alone with God all day to have intimacy with him.

We love him first and foremost simply by relying on him for success in loving others and ourselves. If we keep turning to him for guidance, healing and strength, we are loving him with all our heart, mind and soul all the time, every day, every moment, no matter what's going on.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. How good are you at setting priorities and keeping God at the top?
2. What puts your priorities out of order?
3. What can you do to increase God's role in your everyday life?
4. Describe some of the techniques you've used to increase God's priority in your everyday life.
5. How has focusing on your relationship with God helped you to be more loving to yourself and kinder toward others?
