A Note From Fr. Bob

Dear Friends,

Grace and peace to you!

Carnival Update –

Thank you to all who have given so generously to our Carnival Appeal. As of Monday, September 28th, we have received $57,840 in donations! Wow! When I shared this great news with the Carnival Committee Chairs, one responded, “Wow! That’s all I can say.” I am overwhelmed by your generosity. I am overwhelmed by your dedication and love of our parish and community. Thank you! You are awesome! We have begun preparations to make changes to the church video system in the next couple of weeks. Watch for updates in connecting to the live-stream as we may move to a dedicated YouTube channel. The upgrade to the new church sound system will take place in about a month. It will include a new feature for those with compatible hearing devices called Listen Everywhere™. This permits the listener to hear the in-church sound directly through their personal hearing devices. More information will be provided as we near the installation. The Chromebooks for school have been delayed somewhat because of the national demand. We are now expecting them to arrive sometime in October. Thanks again for your support! Wow!

Listening Sessions-

As mentioned in last week’s bulletin, listening sessions will begin in late October. Please check our website and weekly emails for information about volunteering to be a host for the sessions taking place virtually on Zoom and the in-person sessions in the Parish Hall. The information will give the dates of all the sessions. Once hosts are identified, parishioner sign-ups will begin.

Organization Meetings in the Parish facilities-

Many have been asking, “When can we have meetings for our group in the parish?” This week we will publish the guidelines for hosting your organization’s meeting in our facilities. Thanks for your patience as we navigate the uncharted waters of COVID-19. Our goal is to keep everyone who uses our facilities safe.

Save the date – Advent by Candlelight, December 6th at 6 pm

Save the date for this year’s Advent by Candlelight. This year’s evening will be different from past year’s in that it will take place in Church and be limited to 100 people in person but will have unlimited online participation as it will be live-streamed. Please watch the bulletin and website for more details. In the meantime, save the date. Blessings to all!

Let’s continue to pray for each other.

Peace,

Father Bob

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE—GOOD WORKS

We as Catholics believe in the efficacy of both faith and good works for our salvation. Works of the Law do not justify us. However, as Paul tells us in Galatians 5:6, "faith working through love" is what truly matters. The faith we have must manifest itself in good works. Otherwise, it is useless. If we truly have faith, we will bear fruit for the salvation of the world. As the readings remind us today, the Lord expects us to do His will and to labor in His vineyard so that others may encounter His love and enter into His joy. Christ has given us the gift of sharing in his salvific mission. We should not remain idle and static but instead should bear fruit in the world and spread the Gospel message with others, sharing our faith and hope.

"The kingdom of God is given to those who produce its fruit." That's the moral of the story that Jesus gives us in this Sunday's Gospel reading.

And what is this kingdom of God, given to us while we're still on earth? What are its fruits, which we produce during our earthly lives?

Anything we do in imitation of Christ is a fruit that has grown while we're following Christ on our journey toward Heaven. If we love as he loves, forgive as he forgives, minister to others, teach the truth, and heal the hurting, we are living in the kingdom of God now.

When I ask Catholics if they believe they're going to Heaven, most feel very uncertain, either because they're afraid they might lose their salvation through some future grave sin, or because they're afraid it's not humble enough to answer with a firm "yes."

Granted, we do not imitate Christ perfectly. Most of us will need to spend time in Purgatory being purged of whatever is unheavenly about us, but when the purging is finished, we'll be fully alive in the wonderfulness of God.

If we make it to Purgatory, of course we'll reach the glories of Heaven. And if our desire to be Christ-like is genuine, Jesus will help make sure that our sins will never be so "grave" that we turn completely away from Heaven. We'll gladly embrace him when he comes for us at the moment of our death.

Whatever you do because of Christ and out of love for Christ, this is evidence that you are living in and will eternally live in God's kingdom.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What good fruits are you producing in your life now? List them; get out a pen and start writing them down. During the week, as you think of more good fruits, add those to the list.
2. Look at the list you produced for the above question. How do these fruits give evidence of God's goodness within you?
3. How do they provide the kingdom of God for the benefit of others?
4. How do they assure you that you are truly a Heaven-bound follower of Christ?
