SOCIAL JUSTICE—LIVING JUSTLY

On Care for our COMMON HOME
Ecology of daily life—"We make every effort to adapt to our environment, but when it's disorderly, chaotic or saturated with noise and ugliness, such over stimulation makes it difficult to find ourselves integrated and happy" Could you say that is happening TODAY? Pray for justice and peace for ALL.

A Note From Fr. Bob

Dear Friends,

Grace and peace to you!

The sound system in the church has been upgraded! I hope that you will have an opportunity to hear the difference soon! Thanks to all who contributed to our Carnival Fund. A special thank you to our very own Ladies Club for their financial support of the fundraiser. We raised $60,769.00! Thank you! We have upgraded our church video streaming capabilities and the church sound system. Chromebooks have been purchased and will arrive soon. The gym sound system upgrade will be completed soon. One feature of the new church sound system is called, Listen Everywhere. If you have Bluetooth compatible hearing devices and you can control them through your smartphone, then you can install the app for Listen Everywhere for Android™ or iPhone™. You can then stream the church audio through your hearing devices. If you need help with this, I will be happy to assist you. Thanks again to everyone who contributed to our fundraiser!

Certainly, everyone is now aware of the rise of the coronavirus over the past several weeks. This past week regional health officials reminded us of the need to wear masks, social distance, and limit our exposure. Every day brings another notice of someone in our parish or school who has either tested positive or has been exposed to the virus. Health and government officials are now advising us to limit our interactions to a group of ten people. It is that serious. While we continue to offer daily and weekend Masses and in-person classes in our school we also continue to follow the guidelines to keep our church and school as safe as possible. Considering this request, we will now limit meetings to 10 people and suspend our in-person listening sessions for the time being. If you have a group that exceeds 10 people and can split it into smaller groups, we will work to accommodate your scheduling needs. Hopefully, these changes will be short-lived. Let's continue to pray for an end to the pandemic.

It is hard to believe that we are nearing the start of a new liturgical year. November 29th marks the beginning with the First Sunday of Advent. Since we have been unable to use our hymnals during the pandemic, we will make the new ones available to everyone so that you might take it with you and use as your own. If you would like one, please pick it up from the table in the Gathering Area or near the side door entrance. It will be yours to use for the year. If you have any questions about this, please contact me.

Next week we will have information about our planning for our Christmas celebrations.

Let's pray for each other this week!

Peace,
Father Bob

This Sunday's Gospel reading reminds us not to bury the gifts that God has given us. To do so is to be a "wicked, lazy servant!"

Ouch.

We all have at least one buried talent. There's more we could be doing for the kingdom of God, but we think: "Not me. I'm not gifted enough" or "Someone else can do it better" or "God can't be telling me to do that" or "I don't have the time, the financial resources, the know-how, or good enough health".

There's no holy excuse for wasting anything good that God has given us, but sadly it happens quite often, because we don't realize how necessary our talents are for the Church and our joint mission of spreading Christ's influence upon the world.

What's pushing your gifts and talents aside? What's interfering with your usefulness to the kingdom of God? Now is the time to open wide your potential and release your talents into God's plans!

We are all gifted "enough" to make a difference for God's kingdom, because our abilities come from him.

We're his servants, and it's up to him, not us, to decide what we're capable of doing. Even the homebound and the bedridden have a divine purpose that can be accomplished in their circumstances and sufferings. Often, these precious people are very powerful prayer warriors and have some of the soundest wisdom on earth.

Have you wondered: "If God is so good, why does he allow evil?" The answer is: It's we who allow it! We are the Body of Christ on earth. We are his hands and feet and vocal chords. Jesus wants to make our world more heavenly; he does it through us.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What good have you done? Hear God assuring you: "Well done, my good and faithful servant! Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you greater responsibilities. Come, share your Master's joy!"
2. What "greater responsibilities" can you say yes to using the gifts that he's provided? What's stopping you from saying yes?
3. How would you recommend, based on your experiences, that Christians invest the gifts of God?
4. How do you identify (a) your giftedness and (b) God's purpose for it?
