

Holy Spirit Parish Family

January 17, 2021 — Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

LITURGY OF THE WORD FOR CHILDREN
IS SUSPENDED UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE.

OUR MISSION:

We, the community of Holy Spirit Parish, centered in the Eucharist, and guided by the Holy Spirit, will use our shared wisdom to be a joyful, accepting and forgiving community. We encourage all to grow in the Catholic faith by teaching and proclaiming the Gospel, serving others and praising God.

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE!— MORE EVANGELIZATION

How quick the first disciples were to follow Jesus! They immediately recognized Him as the Lamb of God and followed Him to where He was staying. How quickly do we go to the church or the chapel for Mass and prayer, to encounter the Lamb of God? In order for us to be effective evangelists, we must nourish our own spiritual life and know the One whom we are called to share with others. This week, take some time to nourish your spiritual life and focus on encountering the Lord anew so that you can share Him with conviction in your thoughts, words, and actions.

A Note From Fr. Bob

Dear Friends,

Grace and peace to you!

As I write this note it is already January 12, 2021 and we just celebrated the First Sunday in Ordinary Time, The Baptism of the Lord. I pray for all our parish families, our community, and our country, that as we move into this new year, it will be a year of peace, a year in which we see the decline of the pandemic, and a year in which we can all come together to worship as a community of faith. It will take time but know that we all continue to pray and support one another in every way possible.

Last year Pope Francis issued an apostolic letter entitled Aperuit illis instituting the Third Sunday of Ordinary Time will be annually observed as the Sunday of the Word of God for all dioceses and churches throughout the world. The Third Sunday of Ordinary Time this year is next Sunday, January 24th. One way to highlight this celebration of the Word of God is to bless bibles. We will offer a blessing of bibles during Mass and invite all present to bring your bible to Mass and we will offer the blessing following the homily. The blessing will also extend to those attending virtually. May this Sunday be an opportunity for each of us to renew and deepen our relationship with the Word.

Recently, members of our Parish Council and volunteers began calling every member of our parish. One question being asked is, “Would you like to have someone bring the Eucharist to you?” We have had a particularly good response and would be happy to arrange bringing the Eucharist to you. If you have not yet received a phone call but would like to receive the Eucharist, please give the office a call and we will make arrangements.

Thanks to everyone who attends Mass in person for continuing to observe our safety protocols. One question that has come up is, “Can we resume the Sign of Peace during Mass?” The answer is, Yes. So long as we do it in a “contactless” manner, we can resume this rite during Mass. Beginning this coming Sunday we ask that you simply give a wave or bow to your neighbor when invited to offer the Sign of Peace.

Let's pray for each other this week.

Peace,

Father Bob

Like Jesus did to Simon Peter, he says to each of us: "What are you looking for?" When you pray, and when you look at a crucifix, or when you see a picture of Jesus, what exactly are you looking for?

Jesus says: "Come and see!" Come and see what? His love? His healing power? His supernatural ability to answer our prayers? Whatever we're looking for, the reason we're seeking it is because we don't yet have it.

Jesus is the fulfillment of every promise by God the Father. Jesus is the fullness of love, the provider of mercy, the divine healer, the perfect mediator of all our prayers and concerns, and everything else we truly need. So, why does it feel like something is still missing? Why do our lives feel incomplete? Why do our prayers seem unanswered?

Yet with all of this, Peter did not really find all that he was looking for (remember how easily he felt afraid or confused or uncertain) until he was on the giving end of it. He didn't discover the fullness of Jesus until Jesus was no longer present in the flesh and Peter accepted the call to continue Christ's earthly ministry.

The same is true for us who have never seen Jesus' actual eyes or heard his actual voice. We find what we're seeking when we give it to others. Why? Because then we discover that we really had it all along! This is the miracle of "Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will."

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What do you need from Jesus that he doesn't seem to be providing yet? At the core, what is it you're really seeking?
2. How can you find it by doing the will of God? Figure out something to do, then do it and see what happens.
3. Describe a time when you gave away what you thought you did not have (money? time? patience? hope? love?) How were you doing the will of God?
4. What happened to your own needs afterward?

The answer is revealed in what happened after Peter began to follow Jesus. We read about it in Samuel's response to God's invitation. We proclaim it in the Responsorial: "Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will."

Peter was privileged to witness first-hand the wondrous miracles of Jesus. He personally experienced God's love through the gentle eyes of Jesus, the tone of kindness in his voice, and the forgiveness that was visible in his smile.
