DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE!— SPIRITUAL LEADERSHIP

Joseph is a model of spiritual leadership. Humility and obedience are not things that are praised in our culture today. But, remember, our goal is not possessing more things on earth, rather our goal is eternal life with God! Spiritual warfare is real. Through silence, we are able to discern God's will for us and our families. Studies show that when dad takes his faith seriously, so do his children. Men, the best thing we can do for our families is to be the men God is calling us to be, to be the spiritual leaders for our families. The best gift we can give our families is to teach them how to pray.

Journeying Through Difficult Times -Together

What is Stephen Ministry?

Stephen Ministry is based on showing Christ's love to one another. It involves one-to-one confidential caring relationships for those who are hurting and need love and support. Everyone goes through difficult times. If you are going through something difficult like divorce, loss of a job, death of a loved one, financial difficulties or a serious illness you should consider asking for a Stephen Minister. Having someone to care, to listen, to share God's love with you can help you get through the confusion, stress, or loneliness you may be experiencing.

Even in time of COVID-19 we can offer tele-visits by phone or Facetime to continue our mission and to stay safe.

Stephen Ministry is alive and well at Holy Spirit Parish. It is a quiet ministry available for all of the members of the parish. Consider allowing a Stephen Minister to walk with you on your journey to wholeness.

A Note From Fr. Bob

Dear Friends,

Grace and peace to you!

As we come to the conclusion of 2020, Fr. Jerry and I would like to wish everyone a very blessed and happy New Year. May your year be filled with many of God's blessings!

2020 has been an extraordinary year to say the least. While we have all experienced unforeseen challenges and loss, it has also been a year of abundant grace. The grace of God has been evident in so many ways in our parish community of Holy Spirit. Thank you for allowing God to work through you as we live out the mystery of his love each day.

Thanks to everyone for your prayers and support. Thanks for making our parish an incredibly special place. You are in my daily prayers!

May God bless and keep you today and always!

SOCIAL JUSTICE

Encyclical Letter of the Supreme Pontiff Francis...
 On care for our common home — Laudato Si #128
 “We were created with a vocation to work. The goal should not be that technological progress increasingly replace human work, for this would be detrimental to humanity. Work is a necessity, part of the meaning of life on this earth, a path to growth, human development, and personal fulfillment. Helping the poor financially must always be a provisional solution in face of pressing needs. The broader objective should always be to allow them a dignified life through work.”

"Joy mixed with drama marks the fifth [joyful] mystery, the finding of the twelve-year-old Jesus in the Temple." Saint John Paul the Great wrote this In Rosarium Virginis Mariae, his interesting encyclical about the Rosary.

He continued: "Here he appears in his divine wisdom as he listens and raises questions, already in effect one who 'teaches'. The revelation of his mystery as the Son wholly dedicated to his Father's affairs proclaims the radical nature of the Gospel, in which even the closest of human relationships are challenged by the absolute demands of the Kingdom. Mary and Joseph, fearful and anxious, 'did not understand' his words."

We, too, often fail to understand the words of Jesus. His teachings challenge us to accept a more difficult life, a life of doing good to our enemies, turning the cheek and going the extra mile, a life of courageously standing up for the truth and adhering to high moral standards that are counter-cultural.

Our preference, when living this way is inconvenient or unpleasant, is to rationalize and make excuses for our worldly behavior. But once we truly understand the demands of the Kingdom of God, we see their benefits and we obey gladly.

Without this understanding, we have to simply trust that the words of Jesus are right and true. Like Mary and Joseph, we need to ponder in our hearts what we don't understand, while moving forward and doing what Jesus wants us to do.

As challenging as this is, that's when we discover how amazing God is.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What teaching of the Church have you rationalized away so that you don't have to obey it? Or what teaching of Christ in the Sermon on the Mount (see Matt. 5,6,7) or elsewhere in the Gospels do you excuse yourself from?
2. How much is your disobedience due to not understanding what is really being taught?
3. What will you do to seek and gain a better understanding?
4. How meaningful is the Holy Family to you? What is it about the relationships between Jesus, Mary and Joseph that appeals to you?
5. What has this taught you about God's Kingdom?
