DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE!— EVANGELIZATION

The Gospel today is certainly appropriate for our reflections on evangelization. The wise men journey from the East to pay homage to the King of the World. They then return to their homeland. Evangelization follows a similar process. We must give our Lord homage and worship and journey to see Him and know Him better. Only then, after we have spent time in prayer and worship, can we share the fruits of our prayer with others. Evangelization is sharing our experience of Jesus Christ with others and guiding them into relationship of joy with Him as well. Consider how often you share the Good News of Christ with others in simple ways and in more bold ways. Would there be enough evidence in your home that you are Catholic and follow Jesus Christ? archstl.org/dynamic

SOCIAL JUSTICE

"They Will Inherit The Earth" ~ Father John Dear
Dear God of peace, Creator God, I pray for Mother Earth. Prevent us from ongoing crucifixion of the earth. Give us wisdom to share it wisely. Give us an entirely new understanding that we might put Mother Earth and her creatures first, that we might also protect the poor and vulnerable, that we might legislate global protection of the environment and stop greedy corporations from raping Mother Earth and Killing the poor.

Journeying Through Difficult Times -Together

What is Stephen Ministry?

Stephen Ministry is based on showing Christ's love to one another. It involves one-to-one confidential caring relationships for those who are hurting and need love and support. Everyone goes through difficult times. If you are going through something difficult like divorce, loss of a job, death of a loved one, financial difficulties or a serious illness you should consider asking for a Stephen Minister. Having someone to care, to listen, to share God's love with you can help you get through the confusion, stress, or loneliness you may be experiencing.

Even in time of COVID-19 we can offer tele-visits by phone or Facetime to continue our mission and to stay safe.

Stephen Ministry is alive and well at Holy Spirit Parish. It is a quiet ministry available for all of the members of the parish. Consider allowing a Stephen Minister to walk with you on your journey to wholeness.

The Season of Christmas ends with a celebration that focuses on the adoration of magi from the East who had sought and found Christ the newborn king.

The Greek word "magi" meant oriental scientists. Also called astrologers, their worship of Jesus does not validate astrology, which assigns power over us to stars and planets; rather, it validates that Jesus was born to bring salvation to all, Gentiles as well as Jews. Their arrival at the manger demonstrates that Jesus was born for the sake of all who recognize that only God should have power over us. Jesus was born to free us from sin and all other forces that control us.

The magi also demonstrate that gift-giving is a normal part of worship. The gifts of the magi become gifts that we all give to Jesus: Gold represents our righteousness, which Christ's kingship over our lives makes possible so that we become more and more saintly each day. Incense represents our prayers going up to God – prayers that involve giving God the gift of our trust. And myrrh is the gift of suffering for Christ: the sacrifices we make for the sake of his ongoing mission of transforming our world.

The word "epiphany" means a moment of discovery, a revelation that changes our lives. Did the magi have an epiphany about Jesus when they came into his presence? Did they realize that they were looking at the Savior of the world? Did they want this little baby to save them from their own sins?

We can safely assume that they never forgot about their trip to Bethlehem. Surely they kept their ears open for news about him as the years went by. Probably they heard about the King of the Jews who was crucified.

We know that they in fact became very saintly Christians; their relics still exist and have been venerated since very early times.

What about you and me? Will we remember Jesus in some new way this year? Will our worship of him transform us? Will the power of sin be defeated by our faith in Christ when we face temptations?

Hopefully, we have been changed this Advent and Christmas Season by a new rebirth of Jesus into our lives and – through our lives – out into the world.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What's the gold you're giving to Jesus? What is your incense? What is your myrrh?
2. Describe an epiphany you have had during this past Advent and the Season of Christmas.
3. How will you take this out to others so that they, too, experience Christ more completely?
