SOCIAL JUSTICE

FOR COURAGE TO DO JUSTICE

O Lord, open my eyes that I may see the needs of others
Open my ears that I may hear their cries;
Open my heart so that they need not be without succor;
Let me not be afraid to defend the weak because of the anger of the strong,
Nor afraid to defend the poor because of the anger of the rich.
Show me where love and hope and faith are needed,
And use me to bring them to those places.
And so open my eyes and my ears
That I may this coming day be able to do some work of peace for thee.

Amen

RCIA UPDATE

The Elect and Candidates (Allison, Christine, Tiffany, Amanda, Caleb, Morgan) are joining our live-stream Sunday Mass and then video conferencing together afterward. They are well, but miss the support of our Holy Spirit community. Tentatively, they will be received into the Catholic faith at Pentecost. Please consider sending an email to let them know you are thinking about and praying for them during this uncertain, yet joyful time of preparation. Send your message to krychlewski@holyspiritstl.org. Karen will share your email with them.

Thanks for your continued prayerful support!

Compassionate & caring listening for you!

A NOTE FROM FR. BOB

Dear Friends,

Grace and peace to you!

Today we celebrate the Ascension of our Lord into Heaven! In the reading from the Gospel of Matthew it is described like this,

*“Then Jesus approached and said to the eleven,
‘All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me.*

*Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations,
baptizing them in the name of the Father,
and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.*

*And behold, I am with you always,
until the end of the age.”*

All of us take the place of the eleven now in this day and age. During the pandemic I have seen extraordinary acts of love by so many as we live out his call. Let's continue to rely on his grace!

In a week, we celebrate our Parish Feast Day, the Feast of Pentecost. While we all would have liked to be celebrating together all along during these times, it has not been possible. When we get back together again next weekend for our first public Masses, it will be better, but it still will be different. I hope that you all have had the opportunity to review our guidelines. Remember, if you have any concerns or reservations about attending Mass in person, or that you fall in the high-risk category, please, stay home. We will continue to live-stream Mass. We are the Body of Christ; we are together in spirit regardless of our location.

May we all know of God's love and peace.

Let's pray for and take care of each other.

Peace,

Father Bob

PRO-LIFE NEWS

Action Alert: Demand a COVID-19 Vaccine free from abortion! The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, along with 20 healthcare, bioethics, and pro-life organizations, sent a letter urging the Food and Drug Administration to ensure that any vaccine for COVID-19 be developed ethically and with no connection to abortion. Among the dozen vaccines being developed, some are being produced using old cell lines from the cells of aborted babies. As the bishops point out, no one should be forced to choose between being vaccinated against this virus and violating his or her conscience, especially as there are other cell lines that have no connection to abortion that can be used. <https://www.votervoices.net/USCCB/Campaigns/73486/Respond>

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE! — THE ASCENSION- EVANGELIZATION

All of the Christian faithful, by virtue of their Baptism, are called by God to spread the Good News. Evangelization is not some exclusive mission that God has entrusted to a select few. Today we celebrate Christ's Ascension to the right hand of the Father; Christ has made captive our captivity (Ephesians 4:8). He calls us to walk in the freedom of the children of God, who joyfully announce to others the salvation He has won for us. Evangelization does not have to entail mission trips to foreign lands. It starts within our own minds and hearts. We can seek to learn more about our Catholic Faith and seek opportunities for catechesis and instruction. We can pray for guidance from the Holy Spirit each day. We can share the beautiful encounter we have had with the Lord with others through simple acts of charity and kindness. God is with us always!

John 21:20-25

In the Gospel reading, Jesus states the Great Commission. He still repeats it today and at the end of every Mass when, through the priest, he sends us on our way. "Go," he says. "Go and make disciples wherever I send you."

A disciple is a student. Think of people you know who are mere followers of Christ, people who claim to believe in Jesus but who are not learning how to imitate Christ, adult Catholics who stopped their religious education a long time ago. Their faith is not enough to change the world, because they live more like the world than like holy representatives of Christ. Or they live more miserably, less joyfully than those who know how much Jesus cares about them. Or they are unpleasant to be around, because they have not developed enough humility to exude Christ.

You are called to disciple them! Jesus has commissioned you to do it. And it's not impossible to do. Take apart the word "commission" to see that you are "with" ("co") Jesus on his "mission". He says, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to Me" in the context of the Great Commission. This means that, when we share in Christ's mission, we share in his power.

If we are more than mere followers and have been disciples learning how to be fully alive in the Holy Spirit of Christ, he will give us the words and the opportunities to teach others to observe and understand what he has commanded.

With Christ, we can change hearts by teaching the people around us what it means to be a follower of Christ who also learns from Christ. We teach first by our example, but unless this is backed up with explanations of why we follow Christ, those whom we hope to influence will make no new discoveries about God's love, the benefits of God's commandments, or the need for God's merciful forgiveness.

"Behold!" he adds as an exclamation point on the Great Commission, "I am with you always. Together we will change the world, one disciple at a time."

Reflect & Discuss:

1. Are you just a follower of Christ or are you also a student of his ways, his truths, and his commandments?
2. What can you do to learn more?
3. How does it feel to be a partner of Jesus in his mission of evangelization?
4. How have others evangelized you? What did they do that inspired you to become more active in your Christian faith?
