STEPHEN MINISTRY

Stephen Ministry has specially selected & trained men & women to listen with care to all they serve, & to keep all that is shared with them in strict confidentiality. Whether your struggle with emotions is what you consider small, or even if it is larger, Stephen Ministry awaits your call for help. 739-0230, ext.130, leave a confidential message.

Compassionate & caring listening for you!

SOCIAL JUSTICE

We have many special and important feasts to honor the Blessed Trinity, Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, the Immaculate Heart of Mary, special saints and yes, Father's Day this month of June. Let us give credit, where credit is due. Is this not what justice is? We are "dust" in the beginning and so return but in the meantime we are chosen, child, friend, blessed beyond our imagination. Celebrate all these feasts.

A NOTE FROM FR. RICH BOCKSKOPF

Saturday, June 13, & Sunday, June 14, mark the 50th anniversary of my ordination and First Mass. The ordination was at the St. Louis Cathedral and the Mass was at St. Cecilia in south St. Louis.

I hoped to have a celebration on Sunday, June 14, but along came the virus with restrictions in terms of group size as well as social distancing. Looking to the future, I hope to have a celebration in October when things might be better.

I will be the celebrant at the 9:15am Mass on Sunday, June 14. It will be live-streamed. Go to www.ascensionchesterfield.org for the link.

Holy Spirit Parish

Dear Holy Spirit Family,

“There is an appointed time for everything, and a time for every affair under the heavens.”

~ Ecclesiastes 3:1

I am writing to announce my retirement which will officially take effect July 1, 2020.

My family has been loved and nurtured in the St. Mary/St. Blaise/St. Lawrence and now Holy Spirit communities. It has also been an extraordinary privilege to serve as a Pastoral Associate here for the last 10 years. You welcomed me with open arms, challenged me when appropriate, and helped to deepen my faith. The times shared, friendships forged and the incredible blessings that we have enjoyed hold a special place in my heart.

I'm grateful for the support and confidence that Father Rich Bockkopf and Father Bob Evans have shown me. I'm also thankful for the giftedness and collaborative approach to ministry of the Pastoral team and support staff. They are second to none!

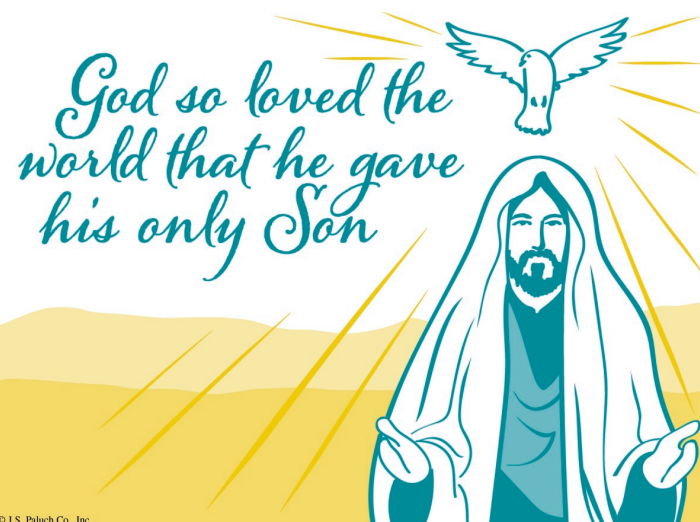

This decision was not made lightly; but after prayerful discernment, John and I are ready for the next chapter of life. A good friend who recently retired put it like this, “I can't expect God to write the next chapter in my life if I don't open the page.”

In the short term I plan to spend quality time with family, especially with my aging parents. We'll also throw in a little golf and travel for good measure!

You will likely still see me around the parish in an unofficial capacity. I can be reached at krski@sbcglobal.net or 314.443.8937.

With prayer and gratitude,

Karen Rychlewski
Pastoral Associate

PRO-LIFE NEWS

The link below provides a detailed resource for the faithful to explore end-of-life issues, decisions and questions from a Catholic moral and ethical framework.

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE!— MOST HOLY TRINITY- THE TRIUNE GOD

I have often heard priests tell me that this solemnity is one of the most difficult days in the liturgical year on which to preach a good homily. It is difficult to preach a homily on such a central mystery of our faith like the Trinity. What is essential to remember for all Catholics is to simply listen to the readings and each of the prayers today for the Mass. Within these texts we can find spiritual insights about the Trinity. For example, the preface for the Mass today provides a great summary of the Church's teaching on the mystery of the Trinity: "For what you have revealed to us of your glory we believe equally of your Son and of the Holy Spirit, so that, in the confessing of the true and eternal Godhead, you might be adored in what is proper to each Person, their unity in substance, and their equality in majesty." One God in three Persons is always there for us.

WORLDWIDE MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life." Let God amplify the love in your marriage on the next Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend. The next weekends are Aug. 7-9 & Sept. 25-27, Courtyard Marriot, St. Peters. <https://stl-wwwme.org/schedule.php> or call or text 314.649.7317.

GUIDE BOOK & DIRECTORY ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITY

We are in the process of updating our annual Guide Book & Directory for the church. This book will contain everything pertinent to our church: the various ministries, organizations, committees, activities, functions & events plus a complete directory of all members. This book is being provided & direct-mailed to each family at no cost to our church, & it is again being subsidized by local businesses that advertise. If you own or manage a business & would like to find out about advertising in our book, please call the Parish Office, 314-739-0230.

Recent survey results by Guide Book Publishing show that 92.1% of families would rather patronize a Guide Book & Directory advertiser over a non-advertiser.

It "will pay" to advertise in our new Guide Book & Directory.

St. Anthony of Padua
1 Kings 19:19-21
Ps 16:1b-2a, 5, 7-10
Matthew 5:33-37

On the first Sunday after Pentecost, we celebrate and honor God's character as the Most Holy Trinity.

The first reading shows us the Father parenting the baby nation of Israel. We see that he is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and rich in kindness and faithfulness" – the Perfect Father.

If we have difficulty seeing him this way, it's because we've never experienced a human father-figure who showed us what perfect fatherhood looks like. Our spirits need healing. We've been projecting human imperfections onto our image of God. Even the best parents and teachers fall short of the wonderfulness of God's fatherhood. We need to consciously differentiate him from our human dads and other human authorities.

The second reading shows us the entire Trinity: the grace of Jesus, the love of the Father, and our friendly partnership with the Holy Spirit. In this and because of this, we are to rejoice, mend our ways, and live in peace with one another.

In other words, because Jesus bore our sins as he died on the cross and then conquered death, he provides us with grace so that we can resist sin, and he provides us with the Father's love so that we can love one another no matter what, and he provides us with the Holy Spirit,

God's love for you is everywhere

who fellowships with us and empowers us so that we can continually live as holy Christians.

The Gospel reading shows us the depth of the Father's love. He doesn't condemn us for our sins; he gives us his Son to rescue us from the destructive results of our sins.

Our sins condemn us and sentence us to eternal death, but Jesus saves us from this by taking us to eternal life – if we want him to!

Reflect & Discuss:

1. Which Person of the Trinity do you know the least? Or feel distant from? Or fear?
2. How have human relationships interfered with your ability to feel God's closeness?
3. Which Person of the Trinity do you know best? Why?
4. How is the Trinity the perfect example of a good, loving, healthy relationship?
