SOCIAL JUSTICE

At a time in history like now—selfish indifference is first shown by not abiding by hygiene, masks and safe distancing. Then we want to look outside ourselves to the poor, the ill, the homeless, jobless and even countryless. Can we even imagine the feeling of not being wanted, or able to remain where we want to be? Let us unite ourselves with all the holy Masses offered daily around the world. Lifting up the cry of the poor. Pray for those who can't even put their prayers in words.
May God hear all our hearts.

A Note From Fr. Bob

Dear Friends,

Grace and peace to you all!

As we have reached the middle of our year and in fourth month of the COVID-19 pandemic, I want to say thank you for your continued prayerful and financial support of our parish. Thank you! I am grateful for your commitment and determination to maintain your level of support. I have been overwhelmed at times by your prayers and words of encouragement. They come at just the right time. Your efforts to ensure that we receive your donations are an inspiration. Your example of fidelity to the faith is a blessing to all of us in the parish and community. Thank you again, and again! Know that you are in my daily prayers.

One day we will look back at this time and refer to it as the Pandemic of 2020. It will be the subject of many stories that we will share in the years to come. As we tell our stories, it is my hope that we will tell others that we are the Body of Christ. As his body here on earth, we are here to continue to build up his kingdom. Our work has looked different over these past months, but we still show each other that we are sisters and brothers in Christ. Thanks for your fidelity and compassion for each other. Let's keep up the Lord's work.

Beginning Monday, July 13th, we will suspend live streaming our weekday Masses for two weeks. We have been using my phone for live-streaming and I will be away from the parish. Unfortunately, my phone will be going with me. We will, however, continue to live-stream our Sunday, 9 am Mass. We have been looking into upgrading our Church video system so that we can use it for daily live streaming. More investigation is needed as the technology has improved and costs have increased since the system was first installed so many years ago. Thanks for your understanding. In the meantime, Mass is live streamed at St. Monica's and the Cathedral. Also, I will be offering daily Mass for you while I am away.

Please take care of Father Jerry while I am away and pray for me as I will be praying for you.

Peace,

Father Bob

PSR NEWS

PSR Registration 2020-2021

The Parish School of Religion has religion classes on Tuesday evenings, from 6:45-8 p.m. for students in grades 1-8 who attend public schools. PSR sessions focus on the message of Jesus, experienced within a community of faith with opportunities to pray, worship and do service for others. The students are also prepared to receive the sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist. Confirmation is a parish wide program coordinated by our Youth Minister, Donna Eisenbath. All families will register & make payments for PSR through our online program, www.holyspirit.psrenroll.com or PSR registration is one of the quick links on the parish website, www.holyspiritstl.org. Detailed information was also sent by email to each returning family.

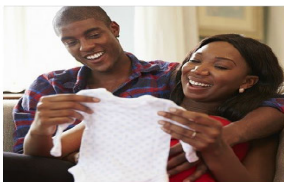

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE!—THE WORD

Many of us have heard the jokes that Catholics don't read the Bible. While it is true that the sacramental life of the Catholic Church is wonderful and surpasses the power of Scripture alone, it is imperative for us to read and pray with Scripture. Jesus, the Word made flesh, reminds us in His words to the disciples how important it is to hear the Word of God, to meditate on it, and to implement its truths into our daily lives. He reminds us of the necessity to be rooted in it and to allow it to become the wellspring from which all of our thoughts, words, and actions flow. We should read Scripture every single day of our lives, whether that means going to daily Mass and listening to the readings, praying lectio divina, or praying a daily Bible verse on one of the various apps. St. Jerome once said that ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ. We come to a fuller knowledge and relationship with the Lord when we read the Scriptures.

Sunday's readings are about sowing seeds. The important thing to remember about seed sowing is that the effort is worthless if the seeds are not changed by being cast to the ground. Each seed must give up its former self, dying in the dirt while new life stirs within it. Only then can it send out a tender, first root, which will multiply and grow stronger and deeper to support upward growth. Even so, it has to be properly nourished to survive.

If all this takes place, the end result is a plant that looks nothing like the seed, which as it grows develops the ever-more important mission of benefitting the wider world of Nature beyond itself.

As we listen to Jesus explain the parable, we say yes, we want to be seeds that become fruitful lives. But desiring it does not automatically transform us. What is it that makes the soil of our lives rich and growth-producing?

The reading from Isaiah tells us that it is God himself who is the rich soil – God and his Word. Saint Paul reminds us in the second reading that suffering is part of creation (seeds must fall in the dirt and die in order to produce a fruitful life). Redemption grows from suffering and death.

We will never feel truly fulfilled until we've surrendered to the soil and have allowed God to nourish our growth.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What tender, new roots do you have that are sprouting from times of suffering and loss?
2. What blessings are springing up from them?
3. What ministry (what benefit to others) could be a fruitful gift of these blessings?
4. Share with your family or faith sharing group what it means to give up your former self to allow new life to stir and grow.
5. What is the will of God (what does the Word say) regarding the end result? Give examples from your life or from the lives of others.
