DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE! —
WE DON’T NEED TO NEGOTIATE WITH GOD
In the first reading today, Abraham negotiated with God, because he wanted to make sure that God was merciful with any innocent people left in Sodom and Gomorrah. Sometimes we can easily fall into the trap of negotiating with God. We can be like children negotiating with a parent. That is probably why Jesus felt the need to teach his disciples how to pray in today’s Gospel. In addition, in the Gospel, Jesus stressed to His friends, “And I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds; Now we all have learned that God always answers our prayer, but the answers are often surprising to us, because they don’t match our expectations. Why is this? God has more information about our lives than we do. The other reason is that He knows each of us better than we know ourselves. When we knock or when we ask God for something, we don’t need to negotiate. We just need to tell God what’s in our hearts.

www.archstl.org/live-the-faith
17th Sunday of Ordinary Time

In Luke 11:1-13, Jesus teaches us how to pray with faith. The “bread” that runs as a theme in this scripture is the life of holiness. The “Bread of Life” is Jesus. The gift of the Holy Spirit, the Giver of Life, is a holy life.

Notice also that the visitor in the parable is a friend of God, not a stranger, who wants to share the bread with another friend. This represents a baptized Christian who wants to share the friendship of God (“three loaves” – the Trinity) with others, but he or she is inadequate for the task.

When we knock on the door to God’s heart seeking help for our inadequacies, the Father gives us his fully adequate Holy Spirit. And that’s not all we get! Wheneve we pray, this Holy Spirit connects us to the Father and to Jesus. Therefore, every prayer increases our holiness, brings us closer to God and empowers us to be more like Jesus. But holiness does not come quickly nor easily. We must be persistent in our prayer lives. We must continually rely on God’s Spirit in order to resist temptations and grow in faith.

No matter what we ask God to share with us, including the material things that we need or desire, God wants to use it to nourish our souls. This is what we ask for when we pray, “Give us this day our daily bread.” Being persistent. Receiving God’s bread takes time (we’re slow learners).

It’s the devil who says we can have everything we ask for as fast as we want it. New Age and occult practices are fast-food spiritualities that are filled with the dangerously unhealthy fat of false beliefs. They lack the growth in holiness that we can only receive from the Holy Spirit. Many people turn to the occult because they don’t have the desire to do the hard work of holiness.

The supernatural adequacies of the Holy Spirit are ours for the asking, because we already received the Holy Spirit during baptism. However, to live in God’s supernatural power, we have to pray persistently, identify our sins and repent, and humbly open ourselves to the holiness of the Holy Spirit.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. How much do you rely on the Holy Spirit’s help in your daily life?
2. How often do you humble yourself before the Lord in prayer and ask for an increase of holiness?
3. Describe your prayer life. How does it help you become holier in your daily activities?
4. How has the Holy Spirit purified you?
