DEACONS: CARING FOR YOU...SINCE A.D. 33

*Please Support Next Weekend's
Deacon Formation Collection*

Did you know that the first Christian martyr, St. Stephen; ordained at the hands of the Apostles as one of the first seven deacons, lived and died proclaiming the Joy of the Gospel of Jesus Christ? In the last four decades, hundreds of men have proclaimed the same Gospel Joy with their own lives; lives of loving service that have in turn changed countless other lives for the better. Called by Christ to minister to the people of the Archdiocese of St. Louis, our Deacons are preaching God's Word to us; praying fervently for us, and caring compassionately for us each and every day. Each year many men discern that same call and begin the process of formation that, God willing, leads to ordination as Deacons. You can help support these men as they discern God's will in their lives. Deacon Formation in the Archdiocese relies heavily on the support of the annual Deacon Collection held this year on Oct. 3 and 4.

GARDEN OF FEEDEN VEGETABLE SALES

We will continue the drive-thru vegetable sales behind the Annex on Sat. from 9:30-11.

Donations for the vegetables are given to HandS to help those needing financial assistance and/or food from our food pantry.

A Note From Fr. Bob

Dear Friends,

Grace and peace to you!

Carnival Update –

Thank you to all who have given so generously to our Carnival Appeal. As of Monday, September 21st, we have received $30,550 in donations! You are awesome! We will use your donations to assist in upgrading the Church sound and video systems along with providing additional Chromebooks for our students in our school. We also received a grant through CARES Act to assist in the purchase of the Chromebooks which should arrive by the end of September. The upgrade of the church video system will come next as that is a pressing need. Currently we use the video system on Sundays with the help of our parish volunteer and my personal phone during the week. The upgrade of the system will permit its use throughout the week as it will be easier to operate than the current system. There will be more updates once a vendor is selected.

Listening Sessions-

Do you recall the listening sessions when I first arrived in the parish? During my first year in the parish we had 26 listening sessions to help me understand your thoughts and hopes for our parish. It was a wonderful opportunity to meet so many of you over a four-month period. It has always been my intention to hold listening sessions again after I had served 5 years in our parish so that I could hear your thoughts about our parish and help set the vision for the next five years.

Following an ongoing discussion with the Parish Council, we are going to embark on another round of listening sessions beginning in late October. While I have not completed five years, I am in my fifth year as your pastor. Given the challenges of the past 6 months with the pandemic, this seems to be a particularly good time to listen. This time will be different since it is impractical to gather in your homes. Most of these sessions will take place virtually through the Zoom Video Conferencing software along with several sessions in the parish hall for those who do not have the technology to use Zoom. The Zoom sessions will take place during evenings of the week and the in-person sessions on Sunday afternoons.

The first step to set up these sessions will be to recruit volunteers to act as hosts for each session. The host responsibility will be to assist me by taking notes and to serve as a friendly face to encourage parishioners with similar interests to sign up for a session. Sign-ups will take place through sign-ups on-line as we do with Mass. Those who do not have access to a computer will be able to sign up by calling the Parish Office. Once all the hosts are identified, general sign-ups for the sessions will take place in the same way. Please watch the bulletin and your email for updates.

Let's continue to pray for each other.

Peace,

Father Bob

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE—HUMILITY

A wise man once told me that humility is simply living in the truth, not being too prideful in our gifts but also not hiding them. In the Gospel today, Jesus shows us the importance of accepting our mistakes and choosing the right path, not remaining obstinate in our error. The Pharisees rejected John the Baptist even after they saw that people were following him because he was a righteous man. How often today do people engage in arguments just so that they can feel the “glory” of being “right?” People quibble today so often about trivial matters. Let’s reject this mentality and acknowledge our faults and mistakes and be humble in the sight of the Lord. He will lift us up and renew us (James 4:10).

Today's Gospel story was meant to shock people who think they're okay spiritually but do not honestly examine how well they do the Father's will.

Jesus said that tax collectors and prostitutes (professions considered to be the most contemptible and unholy) were entering the kingdom of God ahead of religious experts!

These so-called "ex-perts" knew the correct answer to the question that Jesus posed – they knew to say yes to God – but knowing the right answer and actually DOing the right answer is the dividing line between heaven and hell.

God doesn't want right answers; he wants righteous actions. God doesn't want dutiful compliance to Church teachings; he wants obedience motivated by love and an enthusiastic attitude of serving in the mission of the Church.

What's the value of going to Mass every Sunday, for example, if it doesn't result in deeds of holiness outside the Mass?

Do you know someone who's saying "no" to coming to Mass? If they're doing good works because they genuinely love God, who's to say they won't reach full unity with him sooner than people who attend every Mass but do little to help others?

God wants us to do both: Know the right answers and be righteous. Go to Mass faithfully and be changed by it. Say yes to his calling to make the world a better place by uniting ourselves to Christ in church and following out him out the door, taking him to everyone we meet.

Reflect & Discuss:

1. What opportunities to serve God in your parish or out in the community have you said "no" to? Spend some time praying to understand whether or not that was an invitation from Christ himself.
2. What can you say "yes" to now?
3. What types of people today are despised the most?
4. Who seems least likely to get into heaven? (A terrorist perhaps? An ex-spouse?) How is it possible (to our surprise) that we might be greeted by them when we arrive in heaven? How would you feel about it?
